

POSTPONED Public Sale.

BY virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland, the undersigned Trustee will offer at public sale, at the House of John Davidson, in Havre de Grace, on MONDAY the 16th day of February next, the following valuable property, situate and being in Cecil county, upon and near the waters of the North East river and the Chesapeake Bay, being a part of the real estate of the late Col. William Ramsay, and sold for the payment of his debts:

FISHERY,

78½ acres of Cleared Land the tract adjoining, known by the name of the "Glen Bank Fishery," lying upon the North East river, about one mile above its entrance into the Chesapeake Bay. The excellence and value of this fishery are so generally known, that it might be considered almost unnecessary to enumerate the many advantages it affords. It is, therefore, for the information of those who may be unacquainted with them, sufficient to state, that in certainty of catching fish, both shad and herrings, and a ready fresh sale for them at the highest prices, the cheapness and economy with which it can be carried on, requiring a very shallow seine, which will not reach longer than upon most other shores, and low funds: the small capital required, as the extensive fresh sales never fail to supply it, and that it has never failed, when properly conducted, to furnish a handsome profit every season, however unfavorable it may have been, are a part of the advantages known to be possessed by this fishery, by those who are best acquainted with it. Notwithstanding the unfavorable season of the last fishing season, and although carried on with old and imperfect materials, 17,000 shad were caught, all which were sold fresh except 13 barrels. The fresh sales amounted to $1619.56; in addition to which, a considerable number of barrels of salted shad were put up. The cleared land adjoining the said fishery, containing 78½ acres, and which will be sold with it, can be easily and advantageously improved with the offal fish, scales, pickle, &c. derived from the fishery.

Also—That valuable farm called "POPLAR POINT FARM," lying about a mile from Carpenter's Point, and bounded by the Chesapeake Bay and lands of William Simons, Joseph Gordon, and the late Jeremiah Baker, deceased. This farm contains about 60 acres of which is WOODLAND of an excellent quality. The residue is ARABLE LAND, divided into six fields, under good fencing; a great part of which is pastured and cultivated with six chestnut and locusts pastures. The natural quality of this land is first rate, and it has been but little reduced from its original fertility: the late Col. Ramsay was offered and refused $4,000 for this farm a few years ago.

The improvements are a convenient TWO STORY HOUSE, nearly new, and kitchen adjoining, all in good repair; a FIRME BARN, Corn House, Meat House, Poultry House, a well garden, well of excellent water, the door, &c. An ample supply of fish and ducks can be had at all times when in season. There is a FISHERY attached to this farm, which some years ago was carried on with advantage, but has been discontinued for several years past. It is believed by those who are best acquainted with the ground, that the herrings running from Bull's Mountain and the White Banks to the mouth of the Susquehanna river could be fished from this shore.

Also—The following valuable tracts of WOODLAND: One piece or parcel of Woodland, being part of "Squire" bounded by Shad Town Fishery, and belonging to the late Samuel Hogg, deceased, the main road leading to Carpenter's Point, and land of James Henson. This piece contains 29½ acres, well timbered and the most fertile soil within 200 yards of navigable water of North East river.

One other piece or parcel of Woodland, also part of "Squire," bounded by the main road leading to Carpenter's Point, and land belonging to the town of Charleston, the post road leading from Charleston to the Susquehanna River, and land belonging to Capt. John Cresser and James Henson. This piece contains 47½ acres, well timbered, and is within half a mile of navigable water of North East river.

Also—All that land belonging to the said deceased, lying on the north side of the post road leading from Charleston to the Susquehanna river, containing

388 Acres of Land,

about 100 acres of which is cleared, upon which there is a Dwelling House, Stable, Corn House, a number of Fruit Trees, &c. and is divided into three fields and a meadow. The residue is entirely Woodland, well timbered, a great part of which is thriving chestnut, and being situated only about one mile from navigable water, upon North East river, offers advantages to speculators, that seldom occur. Should purchasers wish it, the tract of land will be divided into parcels.

Also—An unimproved Lot in the town of Havre de Grace, containing about half an acre, lying at the corner of Union and Congress Streets, opposite the church, and advantageously situated for improvement.

To those persons who may wish to view any of the above said property they are referred to Mr. Henry Baker, living upon the Poplar Point Farm, who will show them the farm; Mr. John G. Baker, residing upon the land on the north side of the road leading from Charleston to Susquehanna River, will show that property; and Mr. Francis Owens, living at Carpenter's Point, or Mr. Adam Little, living near Green Bank, will show them the residue.

The Terms of Sale as prescribed by the decree are: That the purchaser shall pay one fourth of the purchase money on the day of sale, or on the ratification thereof by the Chancellor, and the residue in four equal installments at six, nine, and twelve months; payment of the purchase money to be secured by bonds or notes, with good security, approved by the Trustee. And on the ratification of the said sale or sales by the Chancellor, and on the payment of the whole purchase money (and not before), the undersigned, by a good and sufficient deed or deeds, executed and acknowledged according to law, will convey to the purchaser or purchasers of said property, and to his, her, or their heirs, the property to him, her, or them sold, free, clear, and discharged of all claim of the parties of the said estate, and of any person or persons claiming by, from, or under them.

All persons having claims against the said William W. Ramsay are hereby notified, under the said decree, to file their claims in the Chancery Office, properly verified, within four months from the day of the above said sale.

HENRY D. MILLER, Trustee.

Dec. 20—1854.

Notice.
ALL PERSONS holding Muskets or Accoutrements belonging to the State of Maryland, are hereby required to return them to the undersigned, to whom they may deposit them in the Arsenal at Annapolis.

E. CLOUD.

Dec. 20.

Notice.
THE Commissioners of Cecil County, will meet at their Office in the Court House on MONDAY the 19th day of January next, to settle with Collectors and Supervisors, hear appeals, and make transfers, and any other business that may come before them. By order,

WILLIAM HEWITT, Clerk.

Dec. 13—1854.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of a writ of execution, to me directed, will be sold at Cecilton, on FRIDAY, January 19th, 1855, the following property to wit: One HOUSE and LOT in the town of Cecilton, in Cecil county. Seized and taken in execution of the property of Julius Hynson, and sold for Cash to satisfy a debt due James Phillips.

NOBLE PENNINGTON, Sheriff.

Dec. 15.

For Rent,

And possession given on the 25th day of March next, all that belonging to the heirs of Benjamin Mauldin, deceased, situated in Elk Neck, and for several years past occupied by Thomas Cresser. For further information will be made low. For further information, enquire of the subscriber, near the above farm. JOHN MAULDIN, Executor.

FARM,

Nov. 15—1854.

TRAY BULL.

Came to the subscriber's farm, in Elk Neck, about 2 months ago, a fine colored Bull, having white on the forehead, left shoulder, belly, and hind legs, and having lost the tip of the right horn. The owner is requested to pay charges and take him away.

RICH'D. C. DOWNES.

Nov. 29.

W. H. Oldham, Jr. D.

HAVING located himself on Bohemia for a few months, will practice in his profession when called upon.

Nov. 22—4w.

Pork Wanted!

GEORGE H. DUTTON & Co. will give the highest CASH price for country hams and pounds heavy corn fed FOKK. Havre de Grace, Nov. 29—31.

FOR SALE.

A quantity of HERRINGS, by the barrel. Also—BUCKWHEAT FLOUR. THOMAS S. WELCH.

November 29

Ricketts' Row of Industry

OUT again in the open field, in spite of the officer of the "Stone Stable" and all his thundering artillery. We believe he does not load his artillery with the same ammunition that we do. We believe he rams it down with corruption, and fires with monopoly. We load our artillery with goods, and we do it with bank notes, and we do it with good friends, and we do it with good will to all men. Those persons who live in glass houses, ought not to throw stones. It began at the "Stone Stable," where, you know, there is always dirt about stables. It reminds me of a tale of George Buchanan: it began in a dirt, and dirt I hope it will end. We are sorry to think the officer of the "Stone Stable," what a new he had, left it down where he came from, and had to get one of his clerks to write his advertisement; and then he takes up the paper and extends it out the full length of his arms, say something less than a ten foot pole—and says to some of our friends, "don't you think this will put Ricketts' Row down?" We worry out not—use all the weapons, nor all the Macduals that is concerned with this. This answer to the officer of the "Stone Stable" would have been put in print if he had not made a personal attack on Ricketts' Row of Industry. If he had come in a different light, it would not have been taken notice of; but in justice to ourselves we have to do it, and have the officer of the "Stone Stable" will, for the future, be careful how he makes personal attacks on the Row of Industry. If the officer of the "Stone Stable" thinks that Ricketts' Row has done any injury to him in fairly, he will do it, and have the officer of the "Stone Stable" will, for the future, be careful how he makes personal attacks on the Row of Industry. If the officer of the "Stone Stable" thinks that Ricketts' Row has done any injury to him in fairly, he will do it, and have the officer of the "Stone Stable" will, for the future, be careful how he makes personal attacks on the Row of Industry.

ROACH & BENNETT.

Dec. 6

New and Cheap Goods.

THE subscriber has just received a new and complete assortment of single & family goods, consisting in part of Woolens, Worsted, Silks, Cottons and Linens, which he offers at reduced prices, and which he invites the public and his friends to examine.

WOOLLENS—Super blue, black, olive, green, brown, navy and mixed Colors; coarse dyes, at various prices; fancy Cassimeres and Cassimeres, white, red and scarlet Flannels, Persian; Tricorne and various other Kerseys; Linsey Paddings.

WOOLLENS—Double & single with Merinoes; Cassimeres; Flannels; Tricorne; Valenciennes and Swansons; Vesting.

SILKS—Mottos, and 6-4 Italian Lingerie; black and blue black and fancy Gros de Naples; white and colored Florences; colored Satins; black Mode; Satin; Laventines; Flannel; Poplins; bandon; piques and flug silk Handkerchiefs, silk Vests, Silk Vesting and rich Velvets.

LINENS—10-4 table and bird-eye Dyes; Russia; do; Irish Linen; brown and white Holland; coarse Linens; Russia Sheetings; Canvas; damask Table Cloths.

BOBBINETS, &c.—Plain and fig'd Ribbons; bobbinets and thread Laces & Edgings; Fustians; Linen Cambric and linen cambric Handkerchiefs; large and small; gentlemen's and ladies' English Kid Gloves; black and white Lace Veils; plain and figured Ribbons; Paisley Hosiery; and Eyre, Brads, Cords; Stocks; Tapes; Buttons; Brackets, Knives, &c.

COTTONS & CASHMERE—Dark and fancy Calicoes, for 61 cents; twilled Cashmere Calicoes, for 21 article; Furniture do; French Chintz; 4-4 ditto; Ginghams; Cambrics; colored do; plaid; Jaconets; plain do; and figured Swiss; Mull Muslin; Dimity; blue and white; unbleached Muslins; Checks; Furniture do; Flannel; Red Tickings for 12½ cents; white, red and brown Cotton Flannel; flag and Madras Handkerchiefs; Sewing Cottons; Silks; Patent Thread; 3-4 Cotton Thread; Carpet Cloth; Cotton Yarn and Cotton Laces; Fancy Shawls; Chilly do; Silk do; long Cashmere do; imitation do; 6-4 and 4-4 Prussian do; 5-4 French do; small Cotton do. Hosiery—white, black, and colored cotton, worsted, white and mixed; lambs wool and ladies' merino hose.

BOOTS & SHOES—Ladies' gaiter boots; putrelle, kid, moorose, and gum elastic shoes; lace boots and shoes; men's fine and coarse boots; water proof do; men's lace boots and shoes; boy's ditto.

HATS AND CAPS—Time for and wool hats; fur and seal skin caps. Earthen, queens, tin, hard and cedar WARE.

GROCERIES—Coffee for 10 cents; brown & loaf sugar; tea; molasses; coarse and fine salt.

The Subscriber invites all who wish to obtain bargains to call. He is determined to sell his GOODS upon the lowest terms. Country Produce will be taken in exchange for Goods, and the highest prices given.

EDWARD A. SCOTT.

December 15, 1854.

Job Printing,

Neatly executed at this Office.

Rittenhouse's Patent

Clover Mills,

Now generally in use in the States of Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

HAVING obtained the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the above celebrated PATENT CLOVER MILLS for the State of Maryland, the subscriber would inform the public that he is now prepared to make to order said Mills, varying in price from $20 to $50. The above Mills may be worked by hand, horse, or water power, and will mill from two to five bushels of clover per day, a new work by hand, and one bushel per hour, when worked by horse or water power. These mills will get out from 100 to 500 bushels of seed without requiring the slightest repair.

Persons wishing to examine these Mills will please call at the subscriber's shop in Elkton, where orders will be thankfully received and punctually attended to. The Mills will be warranted, and if they do not perform as represented, the money will be returned.

Persons will save in one season the price of one of these Mills. No farmer, therefore, should be without one who makes any use of clover seed.

JOHN ALDRIDGE.

Elkton, Nov. 22—1854.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of John Gothery, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

BENJAMIN W. HARRIS, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of John Patterson, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

ANN PATTERSON, Administratrix.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of John Patterson, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

SAMUEL GAY, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of SAMUEL ALLEN, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

ANN PATTERSON, Administratrix.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Charles T. Ford, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

JOHN FORD, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Charles T. Ford, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

JOHN FORD, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Lewis Baker, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

MARY BAKER, Administratrix.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of MARGARET RUSSELL, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

Magistrates Blanks,

FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

This is to give notice.

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Samuel JENNERS, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 17th day of July, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

DAVID JENNERS, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of ECKHART GIBBERSON, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

SAMUEL GARRETT, Executor.

Nov. 29.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of ALAN ADAMS, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

SAMUEL GARRETT, Executor.

Nov. 29.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of SAMUEL ALLEN, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

HENRY BAKER, Administrator.

Nov. 29.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of SAMUEL ALLEN, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

THOMAS K. STEPHENS, Administrator.

Nov. 29.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Lewis Baker, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

THOMAS K. STEPHENS, Administrator.

Nov. 29.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Lewis Baker, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

THOMAS K. STEPHENS, Administrator.

Nov. 29.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Lewis Baker, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

THOMAS K. STEPHENS, Administrator.

Nov. 29.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Lewis Baker, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

THOMAS K. STEPHENS, Administrator.

Nov. 29.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Lewis Baker, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

JOHN S. MAFFITT, Executor.

Nov. 29.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of MARGARET RUSSELL, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

GEORGE JOHNSON, Executor.

Nov. 29.

GEORGE PEACOCK,

PROPRIETOR OF THE

AMERICAN HOTEL,

No. 1, Pratt St., Baltimore.

Returns his thanks to his friends and the public, for the liberal patronage bestowed upon his establishment since his commencement in this city. Having gone to considerable expense in fitting up his house to promote their comfort and convenience; and in rendering it as comfortable as any in this city, he respectfully solicits a continuance of the same, as he will spare no pains to merit it.

Guests can be accommodated with private rooms, and Families travelling, with private parlors and bed-rooms, with the best of beds and furnished in the newest and most modern style. His house is situated in the most pleasant part of the city; the Rail Road cars pass his door; it is contiguous to the Steam Bath, Public Schools, Offices, &c. &c.

December 15, 1854.

Wanted,

AN Apprentice to the Blacksmithing business. He will be instructed in writing, English, Tool Making, Mill Work, and anything in all its various branches. To one who can come well recommended, a desirable situation is offered. One between the ages of 15 and 17 would be preferred. Apply to

ROBERT WHITESIDES.

Nov. 22.

Personal Discharge.

KENT COUNTY, Md.

ON the application of Charles T. Lovelady, of Kent county, by petition in writing, to the Justices of Kent County Court, stating that he was in confinement for debt which he was unable to pay, and praying said Court to grant to him the benefit of

The Cecil Gazette,

And Farmers' and Mechanics' Advertiser.

THE BLESSINGS OF GOVERNMENT, LIKE THE DEWS OF HEAVEN, SHOULD DESCEND ALIKE UPON THE RICH AND THE POOR.—JACKSON.

BY HENRY ROSEE.

ELKTON, MD. SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY 10, 1835.

VOL. I.—NO. 21.

TERMS.

THE "CECIL GAZETTE" AND MECHANICS' ADVERTISER, is published every Saturday morning at Five Dollars in advance, or Two Dollars and Fifty Cents if not paid within three months; and the balance of the first paper, on delivery, will not be taken for less than six months. No paper will be discontinued until all arrears are paid, unless at the option of the publisher, who reserves the right to discontinue the paper at any time, without notice, if the subscription is not paid for within three months. All communications to the editor must be sent by mail.

Public Sale.

By order of Cecil County Court, the undersigned Commissioner will offer at Public Sale, on the premises, on WEDNESDAY, the 28th day of January, 1835, at 1 o'clock, P. M., all the Real Estate of Andrew Dunder, late of Cecil County, deceased, consisting of LOTS numbered two and three.

LOT No. 2, contains about 100 AND SIX ACRES. On which there are two log DWELLING HOUSES, an excellent Log BARN, and STYLING, and an APPLE ORCHARD, of about five acres, a good improvement of WOODLAND, and a Spring of the best WATER near the door. The land is in a good state of cultivation.

LOT No. 3, contains about SIXTY ACRES. Of which about ten acres are very heavily timbered. The residue is in good state for cultivation, and the fencing tolerably good. The above described lands are in Cecil County, and are on the Stage road leading from a Baltimore to Philadelphia, about one mile from Cecil County, and are adjoining lands of Jonas Preston, Francis Smith, and others. The terms of sale as prescribed by the Court are, that the Commissioner shall require one hundred and fifty dollars of the purchase money to be paid in cash, on the day of sale, and for the residue the purchaser or purchasers to execute bonds, with approved security, to the parties, according to their several judgments, before entering into the purchase money of each of the parties as aforesaid, to be paid in six and twelve months from date, and to those who are minors in six months after they shall respectively have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, the interest to be paid monthly during the term of years, and under age. Persons wishing to view the property previous to the day of sale, will please call on Jonas Preston.

WASHINGTON HALL, JAMES PIERCE, JR., FIDELITY P. S. HILL, SAVIDGE, ROYLAND, DAVID CHURCHMAN, Commissioners. December 27, 1834.

Land for sale.

The subscriber offers for sale a small Farm of about SIXTY ACRES, more or less, lying and being in Cecil County, Maryland, adjoining lands of George Jackson, S. J. Jones, P. S. Hill, and others. The corner of this land is where the public road leading from New Ark, Del. towards Port Deposit, about 5 and a half miles from Elkton, convenient to mills, meeting and market. The improvements are a FRAME HOUSE, laid and plastered on the outside. A well of good water near the house, and a good pump in the same—a milk house close to the pump, so as to convey the water from the pump into it; a smoke house over the same; a corn house, hog and hen house, garden filled in, a hundred feet square; a young apple orchard, now just beginning to bear, of the choice and best assortment of fruit; the land naturally of a good quality. Further description is thought unnecessary, as it is likely those wishing to purchase will call on the premises and look for themselves, where they can see with their naked eyes the quality of the soil, and the situation of the land. Persons wishing to purchase, will please call on William Reynolds, near the premises, who will give every information necessary.

HENRY R. REYNOLDS. October 11, 1834.

JAMES BROUGHTON, of James McCoy and Mary F. McCoy, In Cecil County Court, sitting at Court of Equity, October Term, 1834.

ORDERED, That the sale made and reported by Augustus Miller, heretofore appointed Trustee for the sale of the property, in the proceedings of this cause mentioned, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary be shown on or before the first Monday in April next. Provided a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper, published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, at least once a week for three successive weeks before the first day of March next.

The Report states the amount of sales to be four hundred and fifty-five dollars. EZEKIEL F. CHAMBERS, JOHN R. ECCLESTON. Oct. 29, 1834. A true copy. Attest, JAMES SEWELL, Clerk Cecil County Court.

J. J. Greenman Tailor Wanted.

THE Subscriber wants immediately a Journeyman, good workman and a sober man, who can have constant employment. Apply to GEORGE JONES. Dec. 27.

Notice to the Public.

AS the Attorney of the owner of the New Leeds Factory property, (late the Rev. John Wilson's) I would respectfully caution all persons from committing trespass or waste of any kind upon the said property, either by cutting and hauling off timber or assisting in doing so, as persons thus offending will be dealt with according to law.

Dec. 27. AUGUSTUS MILLER.

Notice.

THE Commissioners of Cecil County, will meet at their Office in the Court House, on MONDAY the 12th day of January next, to settle with Collectors and Supervisors, hear appeals, and make transfers, and any other business that may come before them. By order, WILLIAM HEWITT, Clerk. Dec. 13—m

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of LEWIS ADAMS, late of said county deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August 1835; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand this 29th day of November, 1834.

HENRY BAKER, Administrator. Nov. 29.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of MARGARET REYNOLDS, late of said county deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, duly authenticated, on or before the 10th day of June 1835; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand this 29th day of November, 1834.

JOHN S. MAFFITT, Executor. Nov. 29.

POETRY.

(Communicated.)
Mr. ROSEE.—Enclosed I send you a Riddle, which for ingenuity and cleverness, I think has seldom been surpassed. I cut it out of a paper a year or two ago, and just found it where I had stashed it among some papers. By the hole at the bottom of it, it appears to have been composed several centuries since. I know of no thing that will serve as a key to it, unless it be the word WORM. Yours, &c., Q. IN A CORNER.

A RIDDLE.

Before creation nature would
That atom into form should jar,
By me the mighty power was fixed,
Of use was formed the first made Star.

For me a Salot will break his wind,
By the proud Atheist I'm revered,
At me the Goward draws his sword,
And by the hero I am feared.

Scorn'd by the meek and humble mind,
Yet to the vain and flesh possessed,
Feard by the deaf, seen by the blind,
And to the tortured conscience rest.

Thus Kered Wisdom I am wiser,
Yet by every bookish knave,
My voice given by the Mice,
Kept by the Frodigi alone.

The King, (Old times) has his said,
At me is often in a passion,
And yet even him I can persuade
To act against his inclination.

As Vice defies as Virtue's fair,
The Courier's loss, the Patriot's gain,
The Post's purse, the Custom's care,
Read and you'll have me for your pains.

"This Riddle was written in the reign of James the 1st of England, who was a very vain man."—B. R. Countess.

[From Black and White Magazine.]
HOME.

O, Home! thou art in every place,
O'er all the boundless earth—
The centre of eternal space,
Where'er thou hast thy birth.

They say, "a thousand miles from home,"
As from the dearest thing,
That links our souls, the more we roam,
The more we wish to wing.

What though ten thousand miles we run,
And add ten thousand more,
There is a home—"in like the sun"
That travels still before.

Though not for us—though all be strange,
Yet tender hearts there,
In all the world's unmeasured range,
No home elsewhere can see.

O'er rugged peaks, or desert vast,
There still one voice is heard—
"Thine Home—Hence there has her lot cast
Of man, of beast, of bird."

Within the forest's deepest shade,
Ten thousand leagues from home,
Home for each living thing is made
That creeps on the ground.

Where life hath neither bed nor air,
In silence, and in gloom,
Home finds the lonely dweller there,
The worm within the tomb.

Home, Home—it is eternal love—
His presence and his grace—
O'er air, around, below, above,
Creation's boundless ways.

Even in the poor deluded heart,
The present home of sin,
God said, "Let wickedness depart,
And We will dwell therein."

Blest Spirit, thou that Home prepare,
O thou make calm, secure,
Let Love should seek his dwelling there,
His Home, nor find it pure.

Thou, when this earthly Home shall fall,
As built on shifting sand,
Me to that heavenly mansion call,
Prepared, not made with hands.

That Home of love, of joy, and peace,
No sorrow in the breast,
From troubling, where the wicked cease,
And where the weary rest.

TRICE PHILOSOPHY.—An Italian Bishop struggled through great difficulties without repining, and met with great opposition in the discharge of his episcopal functions, without ever betraying the least impatience. An intimate friend of his, who highly admired those virtues, which he thought it impossible to imitate, one day asked the prelate, if he could communicate the secret of being always happy? "Yes," replied the old man, "I can teach you my secret and with great facility: it consists in nothing more than taking a right use of my eyes." His friend could find no fault with this; "What," said he, "returned the Bishop, "in whatever state I am I first look up to heaven, and remember that my principal business here is to get there; then I look down upon the earth, and call to mind how small a space it shall occupy in it when I come to be interred; I then look abroad into the world, and observe what multitudes there are who are in all respects more unhappy than myself. Thus I learn where true happiness is to be found, where all our cares must end, and have very little reason to have to repine or complain."

and sufficiently well delivered. After church, I called also two men of the name of M., large men, very also Mr. B., and Mr. C., when they were all gone, wrote journal, and began a letter to J.—. Dined at five; after dinner went on with my letter to J.—, and wrote an immense one to dear H.—, which kept me pen in hand till past twelve. A tremendous thunder storm came on, which lasted from nine o'clock, till past two in the morning. I never saw but one such in my life, and that was our memorable Wybridge storm, which only exceeded this in the circumstance of my having seen the thunderbolt fall during that pro-oxian of the elements. But this was very glorious, awful, beautiful, and tremendous. The lightning played with out the intermission of a second, in wide sheets of purple glowing flame, that trembled over the earth for nearly two or three seconds at a time; making the whole world, river, sky, trees, and buildings, look like a ghostly universe out in chalk. The light over the water which absolutely illuminated the shore on the other side with the broad glare of full day, was of a magnificent purple color. The night was pitchy dark, too; so that between each of these ghastly smiles of the devil, the various pale steeples and buildings, which leaped from nothing to existence, after standing out in fearful relief against a black ground of fire, were hidden like so many dreams, in deep and total darkness. God's music rolled along the heavens; the forked lightnings now shed from the clouds into the very bosom of the city, now ran like tangled threads of fire all round the blazing sky. "The big bright rain came dancing to the earth," the wind whirled its huge wings and swept through the dwelling glare, and as I stood with eyes half veiled, (for the heat was too intense even upon the ground to be looked at with unshaded eyes) gazing at this fierce holiday of the elements—the mad lightning—at the brilliant showers through which the flashes shone like daylight, listening to the thunder, as its voice resounded along the clouds, and the swift spirit like wind rushing triumphantly along, uttering its wild wail over the amazed earth; I felt more intensely than I ever did before the wonderful might of these, God's mad and beautiful creatures, the wondrous night, majesty, and awfulness of him their Lord, beneath whose footstool they lie chained, by his great goodness, under the ministers of good, to this lowly dwelling place. I did not go to bed till two, the storm continued to rage long after that.

MR. EVERETT'S ADDRESS.
We have received a copy of the Address delivered before the Phi Beta Kappa Society of Bowdoin College, Sept. 3, 1834, on the present state of Politeness in England and America, by ALEXANDER H. EVERETT. This address gave great satisfaction to the numerous and respectable auditors who were present at its delivery, and has been highly extolled in the newspapers, as worthy of the occasion, and of the literary reputation of one of the most accomplished scholars of the age. The following animated appeal in behalf of learning and philosophy, concludes this eloquent production.

THE BOSTON JOURNAL.
"Thus far, the relative position of England and the United States has been such, that our proportional contribution to the common literature was naturally a small one. England by her great superiority in wealth and population, was of course the headquarters of science and learning. All this is rapidly changing. You are already touching the point when your wealth and population will equal those of England. The superior rapidity of your progress will at a distant period give you the ascendancy. It will then belong to your position to take the lead in arts and letters, as in policy, and to give the tone to the literature of the language. Let it be your care and study not to show yourselves unequal to this high calling, and to vindicate the honor of the new world in this generous and friendly competition with the old."

MISS FANNY KENDALL'S JOURNAL.
We adjourn says the Boston Transcript, another day's memoranda from the stray leaves of the unpublished Journal.
Sunday, 16th.
Rose at eight. After breakfast walked to church with Mr. C. and Mr. B.—. They went to Grace Church for the sermon; we stopped short to go to the pew in the Episcopal Church. The pew was crammed, I am sorry to say, owing to our being there, which they had pressed so earnestly, that they could scarcely be bound to accept the invitation. The sermon was tolerably good; better than the average sermons on hearers in London.

and sufficiently well delivered. After church, I called also two men of the name of M., large men, very also Mr. B., and Mr. C., when they were all gone, wrote journal, and began a letter to J.—. Dined at five; after dinner went on with my letter to J.—, and wrote an immense one to dear H.—, which kept me pen in hand till past twelve. A tremendous thunder storm came on, which lasted from nine o'clock, till past two in the morning. I never saw but one such in my life, and that was our memorable Wybridge storm, which only exceeded this in the circumstance of my having seen the thunderbolt fall during that pro-oxian of the elements. But this was very glorious, awful, beautiful, and tremendous. The lightning played with out the intermission of a second, in wide sheets of purple glowing flame, that trembled over the earth for nearly two or three seconds at a time; making the whole world, river, sky, trees, and buildings, look like a ghostly universe out in chalk. The light over the water which absolutely illuminated the shore on the other side with the broad glare of full day, was of a magnificent purple color. The night was pitchy dark, too; so that between each of these ghastly smiles of the devil, the various pale steeples and buildings, which leaped from nothing to existence, after standing out in fearful relief against a black ground of fire, were hidden like so many dreams, in deep and total darkness. God's music rolled along the heavens; the forked lightnings now shed from the clouds into the very bosom of the city, now ran like tangled threads of fire all round the blazing sky. "The big bright rain came dancing to the earth," the wind whirled its huge wings and swept through the dwelling glare, and as I stood with eyes half veiled, (for the heat was too intense even upon the ground to be looked at with unshaded eyes) gazing at this fierce holiday of the elements—the mad lightning—at the brilliant showers through which the flashes shone like daylight, listening to the thunder, as its voice resounded along the clouds, and the swift spirit like wind rushing triumphantly along, uttering its wild wail over the amazed earth; I felt more intensely than I ever did before the wonderful might of these, God's mad and beautiful creatures, the wondrous night, majesty, and awfulness of him their Lord, beneath whose footstool they lie chained, by his great goodness, under the ministers of good, to this lowly dwelling place. I did not go to bed till two, the storm continued to rage long after that.

But, indeed, it cost no small sum to ride in a sleigh—drives differs as hour being charged for a horse and cutter, and we suppose not less than five for a double sleigh and two horses for the same length of time. But this is not the only expense. Cato comes in for his share. Cato, in sleighing time, is a greater nuisance than ever Cato was—at least among the advocates and devotees of this wintery sport. If he does not stay his thousands like the old Roman, a very large number at least are sleighed, for his especial benefit.

But the poor horses—we pity the horses. Many of them are so afraid, in consequence of hard driving, hard keeping, and exposure to the cold when reeking with the steam of undue exercise. The temptation is so great, to keep them constantly moving, when so high a price is obtained for their services, that their masters are apt to overdo them. But those that are let—heaven pity them! for the hire scarcely will. He pays a high price, and he is determined to get the worth of his money out of the poor horse's joints, sinews, and muscles. Behold that horse, come dashing up a tavern, all of a foam, his nostrils wide open, his joints trembling, is tall, erect, and his limbs ready to stop dead with excessive driving. The driver and his companions dash into the horse—they take a phlegm-cutter, and prize a gall-buster, and then, jumping into their sleigh, cut on again. They do so at each place where fire is sold, leaving their hired steed without food or drink, and shivering in the cold air. Mark that though—it is the knell of the hired horse.

pattern in philosophy and letters. Inquire whether Cato, or Frederick, or Bonaparte, or Wellington, or Washington, fought the worse because they knew how to write their commentaries. Remind them of Franklin, tearing at the same time the lightning from heaven, and the secrets from the hands of the oppressor. Do they say to you that study will lead you to scepticism? Recall to your memory, the venerable names of Bacon, Milton, Newton, and Locke.— Would they persuade you that devotion to learning will withdraw your steps from the path of pleasure? Tell them they are mistaken. Tell them that the only true pleasures are those which result from the diligent exercise of all the faculties of the body and mind, and that, in pursuit of noble ends by noble means. Repeat to them the dearest slogan of the youthful H. reader in the plenitude of strength and beauty, give up his generous soul to the worship of virtue. Tell them your choice is also made.— Tell them with the illustrious Roman poet, you had rather be in the wrong with Plato, than in the right with Epicurus. Tell them that a mother in Sparta, would have rather seen her son come home from battle a corpse upon his shield, than dishonored by his loss. Tell them your mother is a Socrates, your father a warrior of life, your shield the breastplate of Religion.

SLEIGH RIDING.

"The earth was the old over with snow—A joy to man, to horse and rein—For in the snow world pleasure dwells, Full many a sleigh has heard his knell." During Monday and the night succeeding, the snow had fallen to the depth of eight inches, and the wind having spent its strength in the day before, it was so settled in the quiet in the streets on Tuesday. Quietly did we say? We mean with the exception of the horses' hoofs and the sleigh-runners, which were constantly clashing and ploughing it up. Never in the world were sleighs and horses more busy; and the drivers and owners and drivers of these animals and vehicles reap a more plentiful harvest of gold, silver and bank-bills. A winter's day, with plenty of snow, is the very summer of lively stable keepers and the proprietors of sleighs. Every vehicle, that could boast a pair of runners, was yesterday put in requisition, from the two-horse sleigh to the cutter, from the cutter to the sled, and from the sled to the jumper. Nor were two runners considered in all cases an absolute sine qua non to the rigging of a pleasurable vehicle. One runner was made to do upon a pinch. In fact, the bottom, top, seat, shafts, and all, were formed of a single square stick of timber, which was placed in a condition to run, by having the under side of the seat and chainer off so as to give it something the shape of a stone-dog, or a sled runner. To this was attached one horse, by a strong bit of rope; and half a dozen jolly fellows, sitting astride, each one's legs encircling the rear of the man who sat before him, they dashed away in as happy a style—if we might judge by the hallooing and shouts—as if they had had a sleigh and horses worth a thousand dollars.

But, indeed, it cost no small sum to ride in a sleigh—drives differs as hour being charged for a horse and cutter, and we suppose not less than five for a double sleigh and two horses for the same length of time. But this is not the only expense. Cato comes in for his share. Cato, in sleighing time, is a greater nuisance than ever Cato was—at least among the advocates and devotees of this wintery sport. If he does not stay his thousands like the old Roman, a very large number at least are sleighed, for his especial benefit.

But the poor horses—we pity the horses. Many of them are so afraid, in consequence of hard driving, hard keeping, and exposure to the cold when reeking with the steam of undue exercise. The temptation is so great, to keep them constantly moving, when so high a price is obtained for their services, that their masters are apt to overdo them. But those that are let—heaven pity them! for the hire scarcely will. He pays a high price, and he is determined to get the worth of his money out of the poor horse's joints, sinews, and muscles. Behold that horse, come dashing up a tavern, all of a foam, his nostrils wide open, his joints trembling, is tall, erect, and his limbs ready to stop dead with excessive driving. The driver and his companions dash into the horse—they take a phlegm-cutter, and prize a gall-buster, and then, jumping into their sleigh, cut on again. They do so at each place where fire is sold, leaving their hired steed without food or drink, and shivering in the cold air. Mark that though—it is the knell of the hired horse.

But, indeed, it cost no small sum to ride in a sleigh—drives differs as hour being charged for a horse and cutter, and we suppose not less than five for a double sleigh and two horses for the same length of time. But this is not the only expense. Cato comes in for his share. Cato, in sleighing time, is a greater nuisance than ever Cato was—at least among the advocates and devotees of this wintery sport. If he does not stay his thousands like the old Roman, a very large number at least are sleighed, for his especial benefit.

But the poor horses—we pity the horses. Many of them are so afraid, in consequence of hard driving, hard keeping, and exposure to the cold when reeking with the steam of undue exercise. The temptation is so great, to keep them constantly moving, when so high a price is obtained for their services, that their masters are apt to overdo them. But those that are let—heaven pity them! for the hire scarcely will. He pays a high price, and he is determined to get the worth of his money out of the poor horse's joints, sinews, and muscles. Behold that horse, come dashing up a tavern, all of a foam, his nostrils wide open, his joints trembling, is tall, erect, and his limbs ready to stop dead with excessive driving. The driver and his companions dash into the horse—they take a phlegm-cutter, and prize a gall-buster, and then, jumping into their sleigh, cut on again. They do so at each place where fire is sold, leaving their hired steed without food or drink, and shivering in the cold air. Mark that though—it is the knell of the hired horse.

NOBLE PENNINGTON, Sheriff.
 Sheriff's Office, }
 Etah, Dec. 27. }

100

THOMAS A. ROBERTS, In Civil Court, sitting as a Court of Equity, October Term, 1884. CHANCERY, that the sale made and reported by James Lambert, Esq., appointed executor of the estate of JAMES H. ROBERTS, deceased, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary be shown on or before the 1st day of April next. Provided a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper, at least once a week for three successive weeks before the 1st day of March next.

The Report states the amount of sales to be $345.

EZEKIEL F. CHAMBERS, JOHN B. ECCLESTON, A true copy. Attest, JAMES SEWELL, Clerk, Cecil County Court.

Jan. 1885

Public Sale.

By order of Cecil County Court, the undersigned Commissioners will offer at Public Sale, on the premises, on WEDNESDAY, the 28th day of January, 1885, at 1 o'clock, P. M., all the Real Estate of Andrew Dunbar, late of Cecil County, deceased, consisting of LOTS numbers two and three.

LOT No. 2, contains about 100 ANKER CUPS. On which there are two big DWELLING HOUSE, an excellent LARD BARN and STABLES, two APPLE ORCHARDS, a choice fruit, a good proportion of WOODLAND, and a Spring of the best WATER near the door. The land is in a good state of cultivation.

LOT No. 3 contains about SEVEN ACRES. Of which about ten acres are very heavily timbered. The balance is in good order for cultivation, and the fencing tolerably good.

The above described lands are in District Hundred, and on the Stage road leading from Baltimore to Philadelphia, about one mile from Cameron Village, and adjoining lands of James Preston, Francis Smith, and others.

The terms of sale as prescribed by the Court are, that the Commissioners shall require one hundred and fifty dollars of the purchase money to be paid in cash on the day of sale, and for the residue the purchaser or purchasers to execute bonds, with approved security, to the parties, according to their several just proportions, bearing interest from the day of sale, payable to such of the parties as are of lawful age, in six and twelve months from date, and to those who are minors in six months after they shall respectively have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, the interest to be paid in cash during the minority of those under age.

Persons wishing to view the property previous to the day of sale, will please call on James Preston.

WASHINGTON HALL, JOHN B. PRESTON, FRANCIS P. SMITH, SAMUEL ROWLAND, DAVID CHURCHMAN, Commissioners.

December 27, 1884.

Notice to the Public.

AS the Attorney of the owner of the New Leeds Factory property, (late the Rev. John Wilson's) I would respectfully call attention to all persons committing trespass or waste of any kind upon the said property, either by cutting and hauling off timber or assisting in doing so, as persons thus offending will be dealt with according to law.

AUGUSTUS MILLER, Dec. 27, 84.

A Journeyman Tailor Wanted.

THE Subscriber wants immediately a Journeyman, a good workman and a sober man, who can have constant employment. Apply to

GEORGE JONES, Dec. 27, 84.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of JAMES MACKAY, Sen., late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 29th day of June, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 28th day of November, 1884.

JOHN S. MARSHALL, Executor.

POSTPONED Public Sale.

BY virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland, the undersigned Trustee will offer at public sale, at the House of John Douglas, in Hare de Grace, on MONDAY the 16th day of January next, the following valuable property, situate and being in Cecil county, upon and near the waters of the North East river and the Chesapeake Bay, being a part of the real estate of the late Col. William Henshaw, and added for the payment of his debts.

All that valuable FISHERY, TOGETHER WITH

783 acres of Cleared Land, situate adjoining, known by the name of the "Green Bank Fishery," lying upon the North East river, about one mile above its entrance into the Chesapeake Bay. The excellence and value of this fishery are generally known, and it might be considered almost unnecessary to enumerate the many advantages it possesses. It will, therefore, for the information of those who may be unacquainted with them, be sufficient to state, that the channel of extending fish, both small and large, and a ready fresh sale for them at the highest prices, the cheapness and economy with which it can be carried on, requiring a very shallow seine, which will last much longer than upon most other shores, and but few hands, the small capital required, as the extensive fresh sales never fail to supply it, and that it has never failed, when properly conducted, to furnish a handsome profit every season, however unfavorable it may have been, as a part of the advantages known to be possessed by this fishery, by those who are best acquainted with it. Notwithstanding the unobtainableness of the fish during seasons, and although carried on with old and imperfect tackle, 12,000 fish had been caught, all which were sold fresh except 15,000. The fresh sales amounted to $16,000, in addition to which, a considerable number of barrels of salted fish were put up. The channel of the fishery, by the sale of which, 783 acres, and which will be sold with it, can be easily and advantageously improved with a tidal fish, scales, pickles, &c. derived from the fishery.

Also—That valuable farm called "POPLAR POINT FARM," lying about a mile from Carpenter's Point, bounded by the Chesapeake Bay and lands of William Simpson, Joseph Cadden, and the late Jeremiah Baker, deceased. This farm contains 882 ACRES OF LAND, about 60 acres of which is WOODLAND of an excellent quality. The residue is ARABLE LAND, divided into fields, under good fencing, a great part of which is pastured and cultivated with six excellent rails and hounds pastures. The natural quality of this land is first rate, and it has been but little reduced from its original fertility: the late Col. Henshaw was offered and refused $4,000 for this farm a few years ago.

The improvements are a convenient TWO STORY HOUSE, nearly new, and kitchen adjoining, all in good repair, A FRAME BARN, Corn House, Meat House, Poultry House, a good garden, well of excellent water at the door, &c. An ample supply of fish and ducks can be had at all times when in season. There is a FISHERY attached to this farm, which some years ago was carried on with advantage, but has been discontinued for several years past. It is believed by those who are best acquainted with the ground, that the channels running from Bull's Mountain and the White Banks to the mouth of the Susquehanna river could be fished from this shore.

Also.—The following valuable tracts of WOODLAND: One piece or parcel of Woodland, being part of "Seneca," bounded by Shad Town Ferry, and belonging to the late Samuel Hogg, deceased, the main road leading to Carpenter's Point, and land of James Henson.—This piece contains 394 acres, well timbered and the remainder part is within 300 yards of navigable water of North East river.

One other piece or parcel of Woodland, also part of "Seneca," bounded by the main road leading to Carpenter's Point, and belonging to the town of Christown, the main road leading from Christown to the Susquehanna Ferry, and land belonging to Capt. John Cooper and James Henson. This piece contains 473 acres, well timbered, and is within half a mile of navigable water of North East river.

Also.—All that land belonging to the said deceased, lying on the north side of the post road leading from Christown to the Susquehanna ferry, containing 388 Acres of Land, about 100 acres of which is cleared, upon which there is a Dwelling House, Stable, Corn House, a number of Fruit Trees, &c., and is divided into three fields and meadow. The residue is entirely Woodland, well timbered, a great part of which is thriving chestnut; and being situated only about two miles from navigable water upon North East river, offers advantages to speculators, that seldom occur. Should purchasers wish it, the tract of land is divided into parcels.

Also.—An unimproved Lot in the town of Hare de Grace, containing about half an acre, lying at the corner of Union and Congress Streets, opposite the Church, and advantageously situated for improvement.

To those persons who may wish to view any of the above-mentioned property they are referred to Mr. Henry Baker, living upon the Poplar Point Farm, who will show them the farm; Mr. John Gallagher, residing upon the land on the north side of the town, between from Christown to Susquehanna as Ferry, will show that property; and Mr. Francis Owens, living at Carpenter's Point, or Mr. Adam Little, living near Green Bank, will show them the residue.

The Terms of Sale as prescribed by the decree are.—That the purchaser shall pay one fourth of the purchase money on the day of sale, or on the ratification thereof by the Chancellor, and the other three fourths in equal installments of six, nine, and twelve months, payment of the purchase money to be secured by bonds or notes with security, to be approved by the Trustee. And on the ratification of the said sale or sales by the Chancellor, and on the payment of the whole purchase money (and not before), the undersigned, by a good and sufficient deed or deeds, executed and acknowledged accordingly to law, will convey to the purchaser or purchasers of said property, and to his, her, or their heirs, the property to him, her, or them sold, free, clear, and discharged of all claim of the parties of the said estate, and of any person or persons claiming by, from, or under them.

All persons having claims against said estate, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, within four months from the day of the aforesaid sale.

For Rent, TWO FINE REES.

ON the North East river, known by the name of HANCOCK'S POINT and NEGRO CAMP. For terms apply to ELIZABETH WINGATE, Elton Dec. 27th, 1884.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Lewis Austin, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

HENRY BAKER, Administrator.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Lewis Austin, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

HENRY BAKER, Administrator.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Samuel Jenness, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

DAVID JENNESS, Administrator.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of SAMUEL ALLEN, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 17th day of July, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

THOMAS K. STEPHENS, Administrator.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of MARGARET RUSSELL, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 10th day of June, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN, Administrator.

For Rent,

And possession given on the 25th day of March next, all that FARM, belonging to the heirs of Benjamin Mauldin, deceased, situated in Elk Neck, and for several years past occupied by Thomas Cressett. For possession the same will be made for, or further information, enquire of the subscriber, near the above farm. JOHN MAULDIN, Nov. 18—1884.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of John Patterson, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

BENJAMIN W. HARRIS, Administrator.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of John Galloway, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

BENJAMIN W. HARRIS, Administrator.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of John Patterson, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 10th day of July, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

SAMUEL GAY, ANN PATTERSON, Administrators.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Charles T. Ford, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

JOHN FORD, Administrator.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Elizabeth Baker, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

MARY BAKER, Administrator.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of EZEKIEL GIBBERSON, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

MARY BAKER, Administrator.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of GEORGE DEVINNEY, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

SAMUEL GARRET, Executor.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of Cecil County, letters of administration on the personal estate of GEORGE DEVINNEY, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1885; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1884.

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN, Administrator.

For Rent,

And possession given on the 25th day of March next, all that FARM, belonging to the heirs of Benjamin Mauldin, deceased, situated in Elk Neck, and for several years past occupied by Thomas Cressett. For possession the same will be made for, or further information, enquire of the subscriber, near the above farm. JOHN MAULDIN, Nov. 18—1884.

For Sale.

A quantity of HERRINGS, by the barrel. ALSO—BUCKWHEAT FLOUR. THOMAS S. WELCH, November 25.

Rittenhouse's Patent Clover Mills,

Now generally in use in the States of Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

HAVING obtained the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the above celebrated PATENTED CLOVER MILLS for the State of Maryland, the subscriber would respectfully inform the public that he is now prepared to make to order the said Mills, varying in price from $50 to $500. The above Mills may be worked by hand, horse, or water power, and will kill from two to five bushels of clover per day when worked by hand, and one bushel per hour, when worked by horse or water power. These Mills will get out from 100 to 500 bushels of seed without requiring the slightest repair.

Persons wishing to examine these Mills will please call at the subscriber's shop in Elton, where orders will be thankfully received and promptly attended to. The Mills will be warranted, and if they do not perform as represented, the money will be returned.

Farmers will save in one season the price of one of these Mills. No farmer, therefore, should be without one who makes any use of clover seed.

W. H. ALDRIDGE, Elton, Nov. 25—84.

Notice.

ALL PERSONS holding Mortgages or Accounts due to the State of Maryland, are hereby required, forthwith to return them to the subscriber, that he may deposit them in the Arsenal at Annapolis.

Dec. 20. E. CLOUD.

Land for sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale a small Farm of about SIXTY ACRES, more or less, lying and being in Cecil County, Maryland, adjoining lands of George J. Mason, Solomon Pennock, William Reynolds, and others. The corner of this land is where the public road leading from Elton, towards New London Creek, crosses the public road leading from New Ark. Del. towards Port Deposit, about 5 and a half miles from Elton, convenient to mills, meeting and market.

The improvements are a FRAME HOUSE, bath &c., plastered on the outside. A well of good water near the house, with a good pump in the same, a milk house close to the pump, a new covey the water from the pump into a wooden house over the same, a corn house, log and lean house, garden pulled in, a bounded first square, a young apple orchard, now just beginning to bear, of the choicest and best assorted fruit, a good quantity of a good quality. Further description is thought unnecessary, as it is believed those wishing to purchase will call on the premises and look for themselves, where they can see with the naked eye, the result of the soil, the drainage, North East and Elk rivers, and the steamboat going up by Elk Creek, which makes it one of the finest and most beautiful situations in the county. Persons wishing to purchase, will please to call on William Reynolds, near the premises, who will give every necessary information.

HENRY R. REYNOLDS, October 11, 1884.

Personal Discharge.

KENT COUNTY, Md. On the application of Charles T. Loveley, of Kent County, by petition in writing to the Justices of Kent County Court, stating that he was in confinement for debts which he was unable to pay, and praying said Court to grant to him the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and that said Charles T. Loveley, having satisfied the said Court, by competent testimony, that he has resided two years next preceding the time of his application within the State of Maryland; and the said Court having appointed Carl L. Stronberg a trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Charles T. Loveley; and the said trustee having given bond, with security approved by the Court, for the faithful performance of his said trust, and the said trustee being in possession of all the property of the said insolvent debtor (the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of himself and family excepted) for the benefit of his creditors:—

And the said Court do hereby grant a personal discharge to the said Charles T. Loveley, and do hereby appoint and fix the first Wednesday in the next March term of Kent County Court, for the appearance of the said Charles T. Loveley, to answer such interrogatories as may be propounded by any of his creditors, and also appoint and fix the first Wednesday in the next March term of said County Court for the final hearing of the said application, and do also order that the said Charles T. Loveley, by causing a copy of this notice and order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, once a week for three successive months before the third Monday of March next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Kent County Court on the first Wednesday in the next March term, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Charles T. Loveley should not have the benefit of the insolvent laws as prayed.

Test. J. N. GORDON, Clerk, Sep. Term, 1884.

True copy. Test. JOS. N. GORDON, Clerk, Nov. 8 of C. Cy. Ct. Md.

Notice.

ALL PERSONS holding Mortgages or Accounts due to the State of Maryland, are hereby required, forthwith to return them to the subscriber, that he may deposit them in the Arsenal at Annapolis.

Dec. 20. E. CLOUD.

Land for sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale a small Farm of about SIXTY ACRES, more or less, lying and being in Cecil County, Maryland, adjoining lands of George J. Mason, Solomon Pennock, William Reynolds, and others. The corner of this land is where the public road leading from Elton, towards New London Creek, crosses the public road leading from New Ark. Del. towards Port Deposit, about 5 and a half miles from Elton, convenient to mills, meeting and market.

The improvements are a FRAME HOUSE, bath &c., plastered on the outside. A well of good water near the house, with a good pump in the same, a milk house close to the pump, a new covey the water from the pump into a wooden house over the same, a corn house, log and lean house, garden pulled in, a bounded first square, a young apple orchard, now just beginning to bear, of the choicest and best assorted fruit, a good quantity of a good quality. Further description is thought unnecessary, as it is believed those wishing to purchase will call on the premises and look for themselves, where they can see with the naked eye, the result of the soil, the drainage, North East and Elk rivers, and the steamboat going up by Elk Creek, which makes it one of the finest and most beautiful situations in the county. Persons wishing to purchase, will please to call on William Reynolds, near the premises, who will give every necessary information.

HENRY R. REYNOLDS, October 11, 1884.

The Commercial Advertiser.

And Farmers' and Mechanics' Advertiser.

THE BLESSINGS OF GOVERNMENT, LIKE THE DEWS OF HEAVEN, SHOULD DESCEND UPON THE RICH AND THE POOR.—Jackson.

BY HENRY ROSE.

ELKTON, MD. SATURDAY MORNING, JANUARY 24, 1835.

VOL. I.—NO. 23.

POETRY.

(For the Civil Gazette.)

MARY MAGDALENE PLAIN.

"Oh, supposing him to be the gardener,
With unto him, sir, if thou have him
him here, tell me where thou hast laid him,
and I will take him away."
16. Jesus said unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and said unto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master."
17. Jesus, art thou?
Let me that I might touch, a sound,
A few words which have rent the air:
Behold! that from upon the ground,
Best and overheard with dark despair.
Those tears, like Rachel's, which flow on,
And will not help nor comfort know,
Are wept by Mary Magdalen,
Who for her Lord and Master flows.
Sweet mourner! little didst thou dream,
When grief was crushing thy fond heart,
That thou so soon shouldst shed a beam,
To extract the poisonous dard.
The Lord of glory—the Redeemer,
But think it is the gardener:
To him, her story she unfolded—
"Mary," said Jesus unto her.
Behold, the rapture she now feels,
On hearing that beloved voice,
The music of whose tones reveals,
That now, she cannot but rejoice.
Filled with delight, she now cries out,
"Behold! Master, well thou knowest,
And Jesus shows, beyond a doubt,
How much this pleases me to know."
Elkton, January, 1835. Q.

PROCEEDINGS AT THE RE-PUBLICAN CELEBRATION Of the Extinction of the National Debt, and of the Victory at New Orleans.

These proud events were celebrated in this city on the 24th instant, in a style of splendor which altogether surpassed all former occasions of a like character. A dinner was served at Brown's Hotel in the very best taste, the most elegant and sumptuous, including music, and the Vice President of the United States, all the members of the President's Cabinet, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, many members of the Senate and of the House, and also several distinguished officers of the Army and Navy, were present. The hall was decorated in the most superb and imposing manner. A beautiful full-length portrait of Washington, the father of his country, was displayed upon the occasion, and upon the opposite side wall was suspended an excellent likeness of President Jackson. Other portraits of distinguished benefactors of the country were arranged in different parts of the hall, and flowers, evergreens, and strewed formed the STAR-SPANGLED BANNERS, so dear to the pride and affection of every American citizen. On no occasion did we ever before witness so much grandeur of scenery, calculated to elevate the feelings of patriotic exultation, and to adapt the spirit of every man present to the exalting character of the proud events commemorated. A full band of music was in attendance, and the thrilling notes of "HAIL TO THE CHIEF" welcomed the entrance of the GUESTS into the hall. Great credit is due to the exertions of MRS. HUBBARD of New Hampshire, SMITH of Maine, Hall of North Carolina, BLAKE of Tennessee, WARD of New York, MAXWELL of South Carolina, THOMPSON of Ohio, MANN of Pennsylvania, and CARL of Indiana, the COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS, through whose preparations were made upon a scale and in a style so much in keeping with, and so creditable to the great occasion. Nor ought we to omit the award of unqualified praise to Mr. Brown, for the elegance and abundance which the tables displayed. Every thing on his part was in the very best order, and in the very best style. A divine blessing was invoked by the Rev. Mr. HATCH, Chaplain of the Senate. In fine nothing desirable for the occasion was wanting; and the whole proceeding was marked with the fullest measure of gratification to all present.

Mr. THOMAS H. BENTON officiated as President of the Day, assisted by the following gentlemen as Vice President: JAMES K. POLK, of Tennessee, WILLIAM R. KING, of Alabama, HENRY A. MURLEMAN, of Pennsylvania, SAMUEL W. WALKER, Jr. of New York, J. M. WAYNE, of Georgia, ISAAC HILL, of New Hampshire, BEDFORD BROWN, of Ohio, CAROLINA THOMAS, of Ohio, RAYLOR BROWN, of Indiana, JOHN V. MAXWELL, of Virginia, E. K. KANE, of Illinois, PHILEMON DICKERSON, of New Jersey, and JOSEPH HALL, of Maine.

received with great and frequent bursts of applause from the company. To those succeeded regular and volunteer toasts, interspersed with speeches from several gentlemen. We have collected the toasts and speeches as far as has been practicable, which are subjoined. In the remarks of Mr. BENTON, he said:

GENTLEMEN: We have met for the commemoration of two great events—the anniversary of the victory at New Orleans, and the extinguishment of the national debt.

Both events are worthy of celebration, and must ever remain as eras in the history of our country. The celebration of great national events is an obligation of duty, and of policy. They do honor to the past, and service to the future; paying the annual instalments of an invaluable debt of honor, and of gratitude, to those who have gone before, while planting the seeds of emulation in the bosoms of those who are to come after.

The immortal victories of Greece and Rome, did each, in its turn, save those republics but once? Or rather, did not each victory save the country many times, by the enthusiasm it excited, and the emulation it inspired? (Applause.) So of the great victory which we now celebrate! Its memory will fire the souls of the latest posterity, and animate successive generations to the emulation of its heroic achievement, and deathless fame. (Great Applause.)

The extinction of the national debt is an event of a different kind, more rare, but not less deserving of endless commemoration in the life of nations. (Applause.) How seldom can two such consequences concur! We create a debt, and pay it; and economy extinguish it. The illustrious general shines in the career of arms that leads his country with debt; the civil statesman pays off the encumbrance of military glory. How great, then, the felicity of him who, uniting in his own person the function of general and statesman, pays off in peace the debt of war! (Immense and long-continued applause.) How many great events, at this moment, illustrated by victories, are yet loaded down with debt, and with taxes? Our America, young, free, vigorous, is the grand and solitary exception! (Applause.) Her national debt has ceased to exist! The debt of two wars is paid off! And this beneficent summation takes place under the civil administration of him, whose career, connecting itself with both wars, furnishes the most brilliant event of our military annals—(Great Applause.) The national debt is paid! This month of January, 1835, in the 58th year of the Republic, ANDREW JACKSON being President, the NATIONAL DEBT IS PAID! and the apparition, so long unobserved, of a great nation, to extend to a national debt stands revealed to the astonished vision of a wondering world! (Great cheering.) At home, this great, rare event, the consummation of all hopes, the exultation of all hearts, is also the consummation of justice! (Heart beat!) It admonishes to the practice of economy; the reduction of burthens! (Cheers.) Abroad, it is the exhibition of power; a nation without debt, exhibiting in the very face of the world, the invincible force of a hundred thousand men in arms, and a hundred lines of battle ships at sea! (Great applause.) And I say this not for effect on impending circumstances, but for the truth of the sentiment, and the propriety of the occasion for it.

President Jackson: May the evening of his days be as tranquil, and as happy for himself, as his meridian has been resplendent, glorious, and beneficial for his country. When the applause with which Mr. Benton's toast was received had subsided, the regular toasts were announced by the Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, as follows:

Our National Independence: Shown forth by the heroism of our fathers at Bunker Hill; confirmed by the valor of our troops at New Orleans; perfected in glory by the extinguishment of our National Debt.

The National Debt: Its formation exemplified the wisdom, its preservation testified the worth of popular liberty. After the second regular toast, a following letter was received from the President of the United States, succeeded by six cheers for the whole company spontaneously united:

WASHINGTON, January 7th, 1835.

GENTLEMEN: I regret that it will not be in my power to join you in the celebration to which you have been pleased to invite me, on the 24th instant. Accept the offer of the annexed sentiment, which, I trust, may be received as not inappropriate to the occasion.

I am, with great respect, your most obedient servant.

ANDREW JACKSON.

Messrs. HENRY HUBBARD, and others, a Committee.

The payment of the Public Debt: Let us remember it as an event which gives increased power as a nation, and reflects lustre on our Federal Union, of whose justice, fidelity, and wisdom, it is a glorious illustration.

The Federal Constitution: Best secured when least aided by addition, construction, or usurpation.

A State Rights: Older than the rights of the Union—equally essential to freedom—worthy of preservation at the same price.

After the fourth toast, the Vice President of the United States was called upon for a sentiment, and responded as follows:

By Mr. VAN BUREN, Vice President of the United States. These great elements of power—in increasing population—ample and unnumbered resources, and a jealous regard for national honor.

Our Revolutionary Debt: It secured our National Independence—Public virtue has extinguished the former, and preserved the latter.

After the above sentiment had been drunk, owing to the relationship of the Vice President to the President, the Treasury Department, as Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means in the House of Representatives, he was called upon from the Chair for a sentiment. Whereupon, Mr. Polk rose and addressed the meeting.

The day of the final payment of the national debt, (said Mr. Polk,) must be a day of national rejoicing! The only national debt that now remains, is that debt of gratitude which those who established and those who sustained our national freedom. We had the extinguishment of it so early a period of the public debt created by two wars, the one to purchase, the other to preserve and protect public liberty, as the result of a wise, economical, and patriotic administration of the public affairs. It is known, that under the operation of our laws, the sinking fund had for some years gradually and steadily reduced the amount of debt; but the merit is due to this Administration of having accomplished its total extinction at a much earlier period, than could have been practicable, if the policy of the Administration which inaugurated the Executive branch of the Government prevailed. The speedy payment of the debt is known to have been a leading and favorite object with the existing Administration, from the moment it came into power. To effect it, it is known that the Executive branch of the Government has, on more than one occasion, withheld his constitutional sanction from bills of appropriation for objects, either unnecessary, or in violation of the constitution. He has, by thus interposing, secured to the Treasury, and made available for the payment of the public debt, within the six years of his Administration, more than ten millions of dollars. This may be seen by turning to the bills of appropriating money upon which the Executive veto has been placed. A single one of these—that which proposed to abstract from the Treasury, and thus render unavailable for the reduction or payment of the debt, the net proceeds of one of the richest sources of the public revenue, alone amounts within the two years it would have operated, to more than half that large amount. By the Executive interposition a check was given to appropriations for similar objects, and they were not proposed by Congress—and thus a much larger amount secured to the Treasury and applied to the payment of the debt.

Had the wild, indiscriminate, and extravagant schemes of internal improvement, to say nothing of other objects of wasteful expenditure favored by Mr. Adams' administration not been checked, who is they that believe, we would not be celebrating the payment of the debt? If no change of policy had taken place, who is there that can tell, whether in this generation, the event we this day celebrate would have happened or not? Who can tell whether all our resources and abundant resources not wanted for necessary expenditures of Government, might not have been wasted; the Treasury annually exhausted, and a permanent public debt have been fixed upon the nation? Without unjustly detracting therefore from the just merit of the administrations which have preceded it, it is certainly due to this administration to say that by its wise policy, it has hastened & happily consummated this auspicious result; a result, second in importance, to none which marks the annals of any other country in the world. We celebrate it, gentlemen, on the anniversary of that proud victory of our arms over a foreign enemy, in that war waged to maintain our nation's honor and national rights. We celebrate it too, gentlemen, immediately after that most signal triumph of democracy over an aristocracy, but more dangerous enemy to public liberty—that organized aristocracy of associated wealth, recently found in close alliance with disappointed political aspirants, who had been rejected by the people seeking by their combined forces to overawe, to rule and control, the people, and to subvert the authority of the Government itself. Upon what more appropriate occasion than this anniversary, with which it is so happily associated, could we celebrate so great and so unprecedented an event in the history of our country? The payment of the debt at this early period, may be regarded as the consummation of that signal success of this administration, which has marked its progress at every step and in all its great undertakings. It has been sustained by the approving voice of the great body of our people. Freed from debt, with abundant resources to meet all the wants of Government, relieved from the corrupting influence of a moneyed corporation that has sought to sap and undermine the public liberty, no longer dependent upon foreign countries; and a higher state of prosperity than at any former period, may we not on an occasion like this, be permitted to ascribe the success of the great republicanism party of which we are members, for the support we and they have strictly given to a course of public services, which have produced these great results.

It is unnecessary, gentlemen, for me to detain you in dilating further upon the great events which have called us together. This announcement is sufficient to call forth our mutual congratulations. I tender to you, for your acceptance, a sentiment.

As the victory we celebrate was the president in the military career of the commanding general who achieved it, so the final payment of the national debt is the proud achievement of the administration of the same illustrious citizen.

6. The Militia of the United States: The safest guardian of Civil Liberty. It can be relied upon to protect the people, who are the basis of the Republic.

7. The removal of the public deposits from the Bank of the United States: A measure founded in patriotic concern for public liberty—triumphantly sustained by public sentiment.

8. The right of Instruction: The means by which a free people govern themselves. The Representative who contains it, is a usurper in practice, a tyrant in heart.

Hon. WILLIAM R. KING, of Alabama, one of the Vice Presidents, was here called upon for a sentiment. He rose and said—

Twenty years have passed away since the battle of New Orleans was fought. It was my fortune, at the time, to be a member of the Congress of the United States. Few who now hear me were similarly situated; and none but those who were, can properly appreciate the patriotic emotions which the news of that glorious victory communicated to our hearts. I was one of those who had advocated the war—we had been denounced as madmen, who had rashly exposed the nation to certain defeat, if not to ruin. Throughout the contest, we could not fail to keep the responsibility we had incurred—but I am proud to say, we had never flattered for a moment, in sustaining the cause of the country. We have people represented, gave their undiminished confidence; and the close of the war found me still their representative. In the month of December, 1814, information reached this city that a treaty of peace had been signed by our negotiators at Ghent. From the structure of our government, and the peaceful habits of our people, war will always be considered as an evil—never to be engaged in, but to preserve the honor and to vindicate the rights of the nation. A return of peace, which maintains the one, and secures the other, will always be hailed with heartfelt pleasure—such was the feeling on the receipt of the news of peace. But we had not, gentlemen, with no little surprise, that the most patriotic and brave were placing their signatures to a treaty which should restore peace to our borders, and to forbid more blood to flow, a powerful armament was then fitted out, and the veterans of New Orleans successfully contended with the armies of Napoleon—who had nearly contributed to the destruction of the imperial rule in France, were to be precipitated on our shores. To meet this formidable array, we saw a little band of the hardy sons of the west—without discipline—without appropriate arms—bold, daring, and patriotic, we knew them to be, and commanded by a skillful and gallant officer. Yet few, if any, believed they could successfully resist one of the best appointed armies of Europe, crowned with victory on many a well fought field. I well remember the deep, the absorbing anxiety with which all looked for news from the west. It came—the battle of the night of the 25th had been fought, led on by the calm, the heroic Colfer; our little force astonished and confounded the enemy, by attacking them in their very encampment. Their presumption was checked, their confidence diminished; and from that moment New Orleans was safe. Soon followed the intelligence of the splendid victory of the 8th January, 1815. Never can I forget the joyful manifestations which that intelligence produced—even the bitter revilers of Madison, the uniform opposers of the war in its every stage carried by the enthusiasm of the moment, united in giving honor to the man who in the language of Mr. Jefferson, had filled the measure of his country's glory. Then, for the first time we felt assured the war must cease; for the treaty was sealed with the blood of our enemies. Had New Orleans, the key of the great West, been captured, few, if any, believed that its fall would not have scattered into fragments the treaty of Ghent. The consequences no imagination can depict—we should be permitted to ascribe the success of the 8th, I will not detain you gentlemen, by dwelling on the subsequent events in our history, which have produced results one of which constitutes the principal cause of our assembling on this day. They have been too abundant with a master's hand, and I will not weaken their force. A recurrence to them brings to my recollection a time-honored citizen of the State of my birth—a man who, for more than thirty years, has been the most appropriate representative of the unpretending State of North Carolina—properly called the good State—for, true to her principles, she has ever discharged with fidelity every duty respecting the confederacy, and was content to receive her reward in the consciousness of well doing—I allude to Nathaniel Macon, who stands identified with all that is democratic in our Government—a man who will command the respect and reverence of all of every land, so long as honor and virtue are held in estimation. Permit me to offer—

Nathaniel Macon: Through a long and eventful life the devoted and consistent advocate of the rights of the people. He was the fast friend of Thomas Jefferson, as he now is of Andrew Jackson.

9. Corporations: An invention of monarchs to check the violence of feudal lords—they have become instruments by which a moneyed aristocracy would cheat and govern a confiding people.

10. The Supplemental Report of the Secretary of the Treasury and his official correspondence with Nicholas Biddle: Due, the ending of the war, the establishment of the Bank of the United States.

After the 10th toast, the Honorable Mr. Woodbury, Secretary of the Treasury, was called upon, from various quarters of the Hall, for a sentiment, whereupon he rose, submitted a few pertinent remarks, and concluded with the following sentiment:

By Honorable Mr. WOODBURY, Secretary of the Treasury. Instead of that kind of a national blessing called a national debt, may the United States enjoy the truly national blessings of an Union unbroken, and of Democratic principles triumphant, as long as the glorious day we celebrate shall continue to adorn our country's annals.

11. The President of the United States: Venerable in years—illustrious in deeds.

The Hon. Mr. BELL, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and from the district in which President Jackson resided, was here called upon for a sentiment, to which he responded as follows:

He said he must return his thanks to the honorable and distinguished Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, for the very unexpected honor he had done him, in calling upon him for a sentiment. He would, however, repay the compliment by offering a sentiment which he would be considered as worthy of the occasion. I will call to your recollection, said Mr. Bell, in connection, two of the most prominent events in the military history of the United States; events identified with the name of two of the most extraordinary men of the Western Hemisphere, one of whom is now no more, the other, him to whose merits you have just now paid a first and appropriate tribute. I will give you, gentlemen—

The Capture of York and the Defence of New Orleans: The one achieved by the valor of our Fathers of the Old Thirteen; the other by the gallantry of their children of the new States of the West. The one laid the foundation, the other established and consolidated the structure of our institutions and our liberties.

12. Washington, Jefferson, Lafayette—(drunk standing and in silence.) Apostles of Liberty—loved by the American People—loved by the American People—their memories will ever be cherished.

(By the full band.—Oh, breathe not his name.)

The Hon. Mr. FORTNEY, Secretary of State, was here called upon for a sentiment. He rose and said:

Twenty-two years ago when he first entered the Congress of the United States, he found in the House of Representatives an interesting old man, on whose head the few hairs left by age had been whitened by the process of time. From his precept & example he had learned to say sternly, No, to all propositions for those extravagant, imprudent, and unnecessary appropriations of public money, which if they had not been arrested, would have postponed indefinitely the event that had produced the present celebration. The last day of that patriarch of the old school, would be celebrated by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He would not complain of the unkindness of this course of the old school, would be cheered by the accomplishment of the best wishes of his patriotic heart—his country was freed from debt—Mr. Forsyth said he had designed to recall to recollection the services and character of that venerable and his ancient fellow laborer in the House of Representatives, but he had been unexpectedly just anticipated by his venerable friend the Vice President, from this Alabama. He

A CARD.

INDIVIDUALS who are indebted to the New Canby & Frenchtown Road Company for way goods received and delivered at Frenchtown, will please call at this office and discharge the same.

In consequence of the large amount of way freight unpaid, the last year compels me to say, no way goods in future will be delivered until the freight is paid.

WM. T. BAIR.

Frenchtown, Jan. 10, 1855.

Strayed or Stolen.

On the second of this month from the Subscriber, living in Newark, a large white and blue colored COW with crooked horns. She was expected to calve in a few days. Whoever will give information so that I get her again, shall be handsomely rewarded.

SAMUEL C. FINLEY.

Jan. 10.—3w

Constable's Sale.

BY virtue of sundry writs of fieri facias, issued by James Purnell, William Knotts, and John A. Rankin, Justices of peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Cecil County, at the suit of Azarias Pennington, and others, against Mary Ann his wife, Jacob Hyland, and Washington Hyland, and Mrs. Eliza Ann Moffitt, executrix of J. W. Moffitt, against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of Nicholas Hyland and Stephen Hyland of N. and others, I have seized and taken into execution, one gray Horse, one yoke of Oxen, two Cows, one wood Wagon, Hogs, Heds and Bedding, two mantle Clocks, forty cords Wood cut in the woods, and a number of chertwood Bars.

And also all the said Hyland's right, title, interest, claim and demand, at law and in equity, to all that tract or parcel of LAND on which he now resides—And also a tract or parcel of LAND adjoining lands of George Weston, and others, I will sell, on FRIDAY the 30th inst., at James Hyland's store door, in Elk Neck, between the hours of 11 and 2 o'clock, all the above described property, for Cash.

JOHN GRAHAM, Constable.

Jan. 10.

Amor T. Forwood, Attorney at Law.

RESPECTFULLY offers his professional services to the people of Cecil County, and may be consulted at his room, at Knicker's Fountain Inn, Elkton, Cecil County, Md.

January 3d, 1855. 4t.

For Rent,

TWO FISHERIES.

ON the North East river, known by the names of HANCOCK'S POINT and NEGRO SWAMP. For terms apply to ELIZABETH WINGATE.

Elkton Dec. 27th, 1854. if

Land for Sale.

THE Subscriber is authorized to sell FIVE OR SIX HUNDRED ACRES of the north and west part of the Principio or Cecil Furnace WOODLAND it being that part adjoining Nottingham, and next to Port Deposit. It will be laid off in Lots to suit purchasers. There is a great deal of very valuable chestnut rail timber on these lots, and those who may want rail timber would do well to apply soon, for if the land is not sold soon, the timber will be cut out. Proposals will be received by me until the 15th of February next, for building a first rate Grist and Saw MILL at the Old Cecil Furnace, on the Principio Creek. It is supposed that there is a sufficiency of Stone on the ground for building the mills. It is expected of those who may offer proposals, to find all the materials for the work except the stone.

I want immediately a number of hands, to cut, cord wood, and make rails on the Cecil Furnace Lands.

JOHN N. BLACK, Manager for the Owners

Charlestown, Jan. 3.—4w

A Card.

THE public are respectfully informed, that the law papers of the late LEVIN GALE, Esq. Cecil County, will be put into the hands of the subscriber who will proceed to close his unfinished business, or transfer it to such other person as may be designated.

Gentlemen in Baltimore leaving unfinished business in Mr. GALE's hands requiring immediate attention, will please call upon the subscriber at his office (Athensum, St. Paul's st.) before next Thursday week when he will proceed to Elkton for a few days.

Gentlemen in Cecil county having business in the same situation are informed that the subscriber will attend at Elkton from the 2nd Jan. to the 7th, both inclusive, and will also be there for one week immediately preceding each Term of Cecil County court, bearing his usual attendance during the Term.

CORNELIUS M'LEAN, Jr. Attorney at Law. Office Athensum, St. Paul's street. Dec. 27.

Public Sale.

By order of Cecil County Court, the undersigned Commissioners will offer at Public Sale, on premises, on WEDNESDAY, the 28th day of January, 1855, at 1 o'clock, P. M., all the Real Estate of Andrew Dunbar, late of Cecil County, deceased, consisting of LOTS numbers two and three.

LOT No. 2 contains about 100 and six acres. HOUSE, an excellent Log BARN and STABLE, and two APPLE ORCHARDS of choice fruit, a good proportion of WOODLAND, and a Spring of the best WATER near the door. The land is in a good state of cultivation.

LOT No. 3 contains about

SIXTY ACRES.

Of which about ten acres are very heavily timbered. The residue is in good order for cultivation, and the fencing tolerably good.

The above described lands are in Octoterra Hundred, and on the Stage road leading from Baltimore to Philadelphia, about one mile from Conowingo Village, and adjoining lands of James Preston, Francis Smith, and others.

The terms of sale as prescribed by the Court are, that "the Commissioners shall require one hundred and fifty dollars of the purchase money to be paid in cash, on the day of sale, and for the residue the purchaser or purchasers to execute bonds, with approved security, to the parties, according to their several just proportions, bearing interest from the day of sale, payable to such of the parties as are of full age, in six and twelve months from date, and to those who are minors in six months after they shall respectively have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, the interest to be paid annually during the minority of those under age."

Persons wishing to view the property previous to the day of sale, will please call on James Preston.

WASHINGTON HALL, JONAS PRESTON, FRANCIS S. SMITH, SAMUEL ROWLAND, DAVID CURCHMAN, Commissioners.

December 27, 1854. 1s.

A LIST OF LETTERS

Remaining in the Post Office at Elkton, December 31, 1854.

- A.—Catherine J. Alexander, Samuel Addison.
- B.—Yannetale Riddle, Caroline Brown, Mrs. Sarah Reed, Martha Burk, John Brooks, C.—Alexander Fowles, S. Rex, Ronald S. Cropper, S. Littleton Cropper, John H. Conkey, George M. Cole.
- D.—Lester Dawson, Mrs. Donaldson, Dorsey, Dwyll and Co., Isaac Denning.
- E.—Richard Hudson, S. Samuel Harris, S. William Hays, Hiram Hedges.
- F.—Henderson Johnson, John Johnson, George W. Janssen, Jr. Henry Johnson, S. David Jones.
- G.—H. K. Kibler, William Kerns.
- H.—Caleb Langtree.
- M.—James McEwen, Michael & Quinn, John McEwen, John Mackey, Henry Mackey, William Maxwell, John Moore, Joseph Miller.
- O.—Abraham Owings, Robert Osborn.
- P.—Danzon Perry, S. William W. Porter, John W. Palmer, James Phillips, Frederick Perney.
- R.—Miss Catharine Rue, William Richards, William W. Rutter, Miss Frances Reynolds.
- S.—John Seabrook, Mrs. Henry H. Simms, Modiea Stowess, Mrs. Mary Scott, Ella Spencer, John Swine, William Savill.
- T.—Robert Thayer, Capt. Thos. Taylor.
- V.—Jesse Updegraff.
- W.—Mrs. Mary Vezzey.
- W.—John Williamson, John T. Wire, Mrs. Clarissa Woodrall.
- Y.—Benjamin York, 2t.

ADAM WHANN, P. M.

Jan. 5.

Persons calling for the above letters will please say they are advertised.

Notice to the Public.

AS the Attorney of the owner of the New Leeds Factory property, (late the Rev. John Wilson's) I would respectfully caution all persons from committing trespass or waste of any kind upon the said property, either by cutting and hauling off timber or assisting in doing so, as persons thus offending will be dealt with according to law.

AUGUSTUS MILLER.

Dec. 27. 3t.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphan's Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Samuel Jenness, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 17th day of July, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

DAVID JENNESS, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

FOR SALE.

A quantity of HERRINGS, by the barrel.

Also, —BUCKWHEAT FLOUR.

THOMAS S. WELCH.

November 25

POSTPONED Public Sale.

BY virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland, the undersigned Trustee will offer at Public Sale, at the House of John Donahoe, in Hydre de Grace, on MONDAY the 16th day of February next, the following valuable property, situate and being in Cecil county, and near the waters of the North East river and the Chesapeake Bay, being a part of the real estate of the late Col. William Ramsay, and sold for the payment of his debts:

All that valuable

FISHERY,

TOGETHER WITH

781 acres of Cleared Land thereto adjoining, known by the name of the "Green Bank Fishery," lying upon the North East river, about one mile above its entrance into the Chesapeake Bay. The excellence and value of this fishery are so generally known, that it might be considered almost unnecessary to enumerate the many advantages it possesses. It will, therefore, for the information of those who may be unacquainted with them, be sufficient to state, that in certainty of catching fish, both shad and herrings, and the extensive fresh sales never fail to supply it; and that it has never failed, when properly conducted, to furnish a handsome profit every season, however unfavorable it may have been, are a part of the advantages known to be possessed by this fishery, by those who are best acquainted with it.—Notwithstanding the unavailability of the last fishing season, and although carried on with old and imperfect materials, 17,000 shad were caught, all which were sold for except 13 barrels. The fresh sales amounted to $1649.30; in addition to which, a considerable number of barrels of salted herrings were put up.—The cleared land adjoining the said fishery, containing 781 acres, and which will be sold with it, is easily and advantageously improved with alfalfa fish, scales, pickle, &c. derived from the fishery.

ALSO.—That valuable farm called "POPLAR POINT FARM," lying about a mile from Carpenter's Point and bounded by the Chesapeake Bay and lands of William Simons, Joseph Condon, and the late Jeremiah Bakers, deceased. This farm contains 1821 ACRES OF LAND of about 60 acres of which is WOODLAND of an excellent quality. The residue is ARABLE LAND, divided into six fields, under good fencing; a great part of which is post and rail, constructed with six chestnut rails and locust posts. The natural quality of this land is first rate, and it has been but little reduced from its original fertility: the late Col. Ramsay was offered and refused $4,000 for this farm at a very low price.

The improvements are a convenient TWO STORY HOUSE, nearly new, and kitchen adjoining, all in good repair. A FRAME BARN, Corn House, Meat House, Poultry House, a paled garden, well of excellent water at the door, &c. An ample supply of fish and ducks can be had at all times when in season. There is a FISHERY attached to this farm, which some years past was carried on with advantage, but has been discontinued for several years past. It is believed by those who are best acquainted with the ground, that the channels running from Bull's Mountain and the White Bank to the mouth of the Susquehanna river could be fished from this shore.

ALSO.—The following valuable tracts of WOODLAND: One piece or parcel of WOODLAND, being part of "Seneca," bounded by Sand Town Fishery, and belonging to the late Samuel Hogg, deceased, the main road leading to Carpenter's Point, and land of James Hasson.—This piece contains 391 acres, well timbered, and the remotest part is within 300 yards of navigable water of North East river.

One other piece or parcel of WOODLAND, also part of "Seneca," bounded by the main road leading to Carpenter's Point, leading to the town of Charlestown, the post road leading from Charlestown to the Susquehanna Ferry, and land belonging to Capt. John Cooper and James Hasson. This piece contains 473 acres, well timbered, and the White Bank to the mouth of the Susquehanna river could be fished from this shore.

ALSO.—All that land belonging to the said deceased, lying on the north side of the post road leading from Charlestown to the Susquehanna Ferry, containing 388 Acres of Land, about 100 acres of which is cleared, upon which there is a Dwelling House, Stable, Corn House, a number of Fruit Trees, &c. and is divided into three fields a meadow. The residue is entirely WOODLAND, well timbered, a great part of which is thriving chestnut; and being situated only about two miles from navigable water, upon North East river, offers advantages to speculators, that seldom occur. Should purchasers wish it, the tract of land will be divided into parcels.

ALSO.—An unimproved Lot in the town of Havre de Grace, containing about half an acre, lying at the corner of Union and Congress Streets, opposite the church, and advantageously situated for improvement.

To those persons who may wish to view any of the above said property, they are referred to Mr. Henry Baker, living upon the farm; Mr. John Gallagher, residing upon the land on the north side of the road leading from Charlestown to Susquehanna Ferry, will show that property; and Mr. Francis Owens, living at Carpenter's Point, or Mr. Adam Little, living near Green Bank, will show them the residue.

The Terms of Sale as prescribed by the decree are:—That the purchaser shall pay one fourth of the purchase money on the day of sale, or on the ratification thereof by the Chancellor, and the other three fourths in equal instalments at six, nine, and twelve months, payment of the purchase money to be secured by bonds or notes with security, to be approved by the Trustee. And on the ratification of the said sale or sales by the Chancellor, and on the payment of the whole purchase money (and not before), the undersigned by a good and sufficient deed or deeds, executed and acknowledged agreeably to law, will convey to the purchaser or purchasers of said property, and to his, her, or their heirs, the property to him, her, or them sold, free, clear, and discharged of all claim of the parties of the said sale, and of any person or persons claiming by, from, or under them.

All persons having claims against the said William W. Ramsay are hereby notified, under the said decree, to file their claims in the Chancery Office, properly authenticated, within four months from the day of the aforesaid sale.

GEORGE PEACOCK, PROPRIETOR OF THE AMERICAN HOTEL.

No. 56, Pratt-st, Baltimore.

Returns his thanks to his friends and the public, for the liberal patronage bestowed upon his establishment since his commencement in this city. Having gone to the city the Fall Road cars pass his house to promote their comfort and convenience; and in rendering it as comfortable as any in this city, he respectfully solicits a continuance of the same, as he will spare no pains to merit it.

Gentlemen can be accommodated with private rooms, and Families travelling, with private parlors and bed-rooms, with the best of beds and furnished in the neatest and most modern style. His house is situated in the most pleasant part of the city, the Fall Road cars pass his door; it is contiguous to the Steam Bosts, Public Stage Offices, &c. &c.

December 13, 1854.

A Journeyman Tailor Wanted.

THE Subscriber wants immediately a Journeyman, a good workman and a sober man, who can have constant employment.

Apply to

GEORGE JONES.

Dec. 27.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphan's Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of John Gully, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

BENJAMIN W. HARRIS, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphan's Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of John Patterson, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 10th day of July, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

SAMUEL GAY, ANN PATTERSON, Administrators.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphan's Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Charles T. Ford, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

JOHN FORD, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphan's Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Jeremiah Baker, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

MARY BAKER, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber hath obtained from the Orphan's Court of Cecil County, letters of administration on the personal estate of George Deviney, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 15th day of July, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand this 27th day of November, 1854.

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

Job Printing,

Neatly executed at this Office.

GEORGE PEACOCK, PROPRIETOR OF THE AMERICAN HOTEL.

No. 56, Pratt-st, Baltimore.

Returns his thanks to his friends and the public, for the liberal patronage bestowed upon his establishment since his commencement in this city. Having gone to the city the Fall Road cars pass his house to promote their comfort and convenience; and in rendering it as comfortable as any in this city, he respectfully solicits a continuance of the same, as he will spare no pains to merit it.

Gentlemen can be accommodated with private rooms, and Families travelling, with private parlors and bed-rooms, with the best of beds and furnished in the neatest and most modern style. His house is situated in the most pleasant part of the city, the Fall Road cars pass his door; it is contiguous to the Steam Bosts, Public Stage Offices, &c. &c.

December 13, 1854.

A Journeyman Tailor Wanted.

THE Subscriber wants immediately a Journeyman, a good workman and a sober man, who can have constant employment.

Apply to

GEORGE JONES.

Dec. 27.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphan's Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of John Gully, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

BENJAMIN W. HARRIS, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphan's Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of John Patterson, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 10th day of July, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

SAMUEL GAY, ANN PATTERSON, Administrators.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphan's Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Charles T. Ford, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

JOHN FORD, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber, of Cecil County, hath obtained from the Orphan's Court of said county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Jeremiah Baker, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 4th day of August, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand, this 29th day of November, 1854.

MARY BAKER, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber hath obtained from the Orphan's Court of Cecil County, letters of administration on the personal estate of George Deviney, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, duly authenticated, on or before the 15th day of July, 1855; they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment to the subscriber. Given under my hand this 27th day of November, 1854.

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN, Administrator.

Dec. 15.

Rittenhouse's Patent Clover Mills,

Now generally in use in the States of Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

HAYING obtained the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the above celebrated PATENTED CLOVER MILLS for the State of Maryland, the subscriber would inform the public that he is now prepared to make to order the said Mills, varying in price from $20 to $50. The above Mills may be worked by hand, horse, or water power, and will lull from two to five bushels of clover seed per day when worked by hand, and one bushel per hour when worked by horse or water power. These mills will get out from 100 to 500 bushels of seed without requiring the slightest repair.

Persons wishing to examine these Mills will please call at the subscriber's place in Elkton, where orders will be thankfully received and punctually attended to. The Mills will be warranted, and if they do not perform as represented, the money will be returned.

Farmers will save in one season the price of one of those Mills. No farmer, therefore, should be without one who makes any use of clover seed.

JOHN ALDRIDGE.

Elkton, Nov 25—1f

Land for sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale a small Farm of about SIXTY ACRES, more or less, lying and being in Cecil County, Maryland, adjoining lands of George Janssen, Solomon Penock, William Reynolds, and others. The corner of this land is where the public road leading from Elkton towards New London Cross Roads crosses the public road leading from New York East to Port Deposit, about 5 and a half miles from Elkton, convenient to mills, meeting and market.

The improvements are a FRAME HOUSE, laid & plastered on the outside.

A well of good water near the house, with a good pump in the same, a milk house close to the pump, so as to convey the water from the pump into it; a smoke house over the summer, a corn house, and hen house; garden pailed in, a hundred feet square; a young apple orchard, now just beginning to bear, of the choicest and best assorted fruit; the land naturally of a good quality. Further description is thought unnecessary, as it is likely those wishing to purchase will call on the premises and have for themselves, where they can see with the naked eye, the various parcels of the Delaware, North East and Elk rivers, and the steamboat going up back Creek, which makes it one of the handsomest and healthiest situations in the county. Persons wishing to purchase, will please to call on William Reynolds near the premises, who will give every information necessary.

HENRY R. REYNOLDS.

October 11, 1854.—1f

Personal Discharge.

KENT COUNTY, &c.

ON the application of Charles T. Loveday, of Kent county, by petition in writing to the Justices of Kent County Court, stating that he was in confinement for debts which he was unable to pay, and praying said Court to grant to him the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and the said Charles T. Loveday having taken the oath, by competent testimony, that he has resided two years next preceding the time of his application within the State of Maryland; and the said Court having appointed Carl L. Strandberg a trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Charles T. Loveday; and the said Charles T. Loveday, day; and the said trustee having given bond, with security approved by me, for the faithful performance of his said trust, and the said trustee being in possession of all the property of the said insolvent debtor (the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of himself and family excepted) for the benefit of his creditors.—And the said Court do hereby grant a personal discharge to the said Charles T. Loveday, and do hereby appoint and fix the first Wednesday in the next March term of Kent County Court, for the appearance of the said Charles T. Loveday, to answer such interrogatories as may be propounded by any of his creditors, and do also appoint and fix the first Wednesday in the next March term of Kent County Court for the final hearing of the said application, and do also order that the said Charles T. Loveday, by causing a copy of this notice and order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday of March next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Kent County Court on the first Wednesday in the next March term to show cause, if any they have, why the said Charles T. Loveday should not have the benefit of the insolvent laws as aforesaid.

Test, J. N. GORDON, Ck. Sep. Term, 1854.

True copy. T. M. JOS. N. GORDON, Ck. Nov. 8. of Kl. Co. Ct. Md.

Job Printing,

Neatly executed at this Office.

_____

New Castle County,
in the State of Delaware, &c.

By virtue of an order of the Orphans Court for the said County of New Castle will be exposed to Sale, at Public Vendue, on SATURDAY the fourth day of February next, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at the house of Andrew Bradley, in the Village of New-Ark, in White Clay Creek Hundred and County afore-

Magistrates' Blank
FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

To Rent,

The two story brick house on Bean street, at present occupied by Augustus Miller, Esq.

ALSO.—The Store House on the corner of Broad and Gay streets. The store will be made into two offices if required. Possession given on the 25th of March. Inquire of THOS. MOORE.

RENTAL & DIVS.

BAT MANUFACTURERS,

(Successors to E. W. LARSEN)

No. 48 Pratt st., between Charles and

Horace St. BALTIMORE.

The Subscribers beg leave to inform their friends and the public, that they have taken the above stand, formerly occupied by E. W. LARSEN, in the same business, and by whom it was instituted in the above, and employed during his continuance in the business—consequently R

respectfully solicits a continuance of the custom of those who were pleased with the articles manufactured by the former.

They intend keeping every thing in their line of the latest fashions, manufactured

by themselves, and of the best style.

Goodness of FUR and SILK HATS

of every kind, Youth's and Infants' FUR

HATS, Ladies' BEAVER BONNETS of the best quality; Goodness of Youth's,

and Infants' CAPS, of every description.

ALSO.

Ladies' FURS of every kind to be obtained, of the best quality, and at the lowest prices.

HENSHAW & DAVIS.

Baltimore, Jan. 24—3w 2.

Dissolution of Partnership.

THE Subscribers heretofore trading

under the firm of BROWN & SHINE

have this day, by mutual consent, dissolved partnership. All persons indebted to said firm will make payment to

Henry Brown, and those having claims against it, will present them to him for payment.

HENRY BROWN.

PETER SHANE.

The business will be conducted hereafter by the subscribers, who will spare

no pains to please, and respectfully solicit a continuance of the same, as he will spare no pains to merit it.

HENRY BROWN.

Jan. 18—2w

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of a writ of vendition ex-

possession, issued out of Cecil County

Court, to be sold at public sale,

on SATURDAY the 16th day of February

next, at the Court House door in ELKTON,

all the right, title, interest and claim of

William Thompson, in and to the Farm on which he now resides, containing

TWO HUNDRED ACRES OF LAND,

more or less, seized and taken as the property of said Thompson, and to be sold for CASH, to satisfy a debt due

Blacks Jones. Sale to take place between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock, P. M.

GEO. McCULLOUGH,

Jan. 17. Lote Sheriff.

LIST OF LETTERS.

Remaining in the Post Office at Port

Deposit, Md. Jan. 1, 1855.

A.—Samuel Allen, Miss Hannah Allen.

B.—Doctor Broughton, John Barnes,

Mrs. Mary Bailey, Lorenzo Blake.

C.—James Campbell, (colored) John

Cleaves, William Connor.

D.—Thomas L. Debarrow, William

W. Davis.

E.—Jacob Elston, 2.

F.—Loring Fenton, Obadiah Finn.

G.—Peter Grey, Edward Gray.

H.—William Howell, Mr. Hubbard,

Henry Hubbard.

I.—Miss Mary James, Ebenezer Jenkins, Phyllis Johnson.

L.—Henry Long, David Lockhart, Cor-

To all whom it may concern.

THE subscriber being impressed with the propriety of closing all unsettled accounts, without exception, at as early a day as practicable, would respectfully request those indebted to the firms of

Geo. Kidd & Co. and Kidd, Moore &

Co., at Port Deposit, to make their in-debts to the Store where he resides, to call at said places on or before the 1st day of February, 1855, and settle their respective accounts. Such as cannot make it convenient to pay at the time,

their notes will be taken.

As Mr. Elgin Moore has it in view to leave the neighborhood next spring, it becomes absolutely necessary, that all accounts due the Store at Port Deposit, should be closed by note, or otherwise,

at the time above mentioned. Those not complying with the above just and reasonable request, may certainly expect however unpleasant, to have their accounts placed in the hands of an officer for collection.

The undersigned would, at the same time, respectfully say to his friends and customers, that he is making arrangements for the coming year, to conduct the mercantile business at both establishments, as all more extensively than heretofore, in the meantime, in order to reduce his stock of goods, which is very large and general, he will sell any article in the dry goods line at a small profit,

and every other article at a small advantage. Persons wanting cheap goods, would do well to call at either Store any time before the 15th of February next.

GEO. KIDD,

P. S. Two or three Doodie House, and a Boley for rent, situate in the upper end of the village of Port Deposit;

and several Lots of ground, eligibly situated, will be leased at fair prices—possession 25th March next.

G. K.

Jan. 17, 1855—6w

To Rent.

THE Subscriber will rent, the present year, his FARM on Little Elk, between

Mr. P. town and road, and about two miles from Elkton. Attached to the premise are a first rate Saw Mill, a Clover Mill, and Great Mill. They will be let together or separately—the farmer

would be preferred.

JAMES SEWALL.

Jan. 17

Land for Sale.

THE Subscriber is authorized to sell

FIVE OR SIX HUNDRED

ACRES of the north and north west part of the Principio on

Cecil Furnace WOODLAND

it being that part adjoining Nottingham, and next to Port Deposit. It will be sold in Lots to suit purchasers. There is a great deal of very valuable chestnut rail timber on these lots, and those who may want rail timber would do well to apply soon, for if the land is not sold soon, the timber will be cut off.

Persons who will be received by me

the 15th of February next, for building a first rate Grod and Saw Mill, at the Old Cecil Furnace, on the Principio

Creek. It is supposed that there is a sufficiency of Stone on the ground for building the mill. It is expected of those who may offer proposals, to find all the materials for the work except the stone.

I want immediately a number of hands,

to cut, cord wood, and make rails on the

Cecil Furnace Land.

JOHN N. BLACK,

Manager for the Owners

Charlestown, Jan. 3—4w

This is to give notice.

THAT the subscribers, of Cecil county,

A CARD.

INDIVIDUALS who are indebted to the

New Castle & Frenchtown Rail Road

Company for way goods received and delivered at Frenchtown, will please call at this office and discharge the same.

In consequence of the large amount of way freight unpaid the last year compels me to say, no way goods in future

will be delivered until the freight is paid.

WM. T. BARR.

Frenchtown, Jan. 10, 1855.

Strayed or Stolen,

On the second of this month from the Subscriber, living in Newark, a large white and dun colored COW, with crooked horns. She was expected to come in a few days. Whoever will give information so that I get her again, shall be handsomely rewarded.

SAMUEL C. FINLEY.

Jan. 10—5w

For Rent,

TWO FINE RIFES.

ON the North East river, known by the name of HANCOCK POINT and

NEGRO SWAMP. For terms apply to

ELIZABETH WINGATE.

Elkton Dec. 27th, 1854. If

A Journeyman Tailor

Wanted.

THE Subscriber wants immediately a

Journeyman, a good workman and a sober man, who can have constant employment. Apply to

GEORGE JONES.

Dec. 27.

Notice to the Public.

AS the Attorney of the owner of the

New Lead Factory property, (late the Rev. Job W. son's) I would respectfully request all persons from committing trespasses or waste of any kind upon the said property, either by cutting and hauling off timber or assisting in doing so,

as persons thus offending will be dealt with according to law.

AUGUSTUS MILLER.

Dec. 27.

A LIST OF LETTERS.

Remaining in the Post Office at Elkton, December, 31, 1854.

A.—Catharine J. Alexander, Samuel Adams.

B.—Vernonville Bible, Caroline Brown,

John H. Brown, John H. Brown, Joseph

C.—Alexander Codden, 2, Rev. Kendall S.

Cropper, 3, Littleton Cropper, John H. Con-

roy, 4, John H. Conroy, 5, John H. Con-

roy, 6, John H. Conroy, 7, John H. Con-

roy, 8, John H. Conroy, 9, John H. Con-

roy, 10, John H. Conroy, 11, John H. Con-

roy, 12, John H. Conroy, 13, John H. Con-

roy, 14, John H. Conroy, 15, John H. Con-

roy, 16, John H. Conroy, 17, John H. Con-

roy, 18, John H. Conroy, 19, John H. Con-

roy, 20, John H. Conroy, 21, John H. Con-

roy, 22, John H. Conroy, 23, John H. Con-

roy, 24, John H. Conroy, 25, John H. Con-

roy, 26, John H. Conroy, 27, John H. Con-

roy, 28, John H. Conroy, 29, John H. Con-

roy, 30, John H. Conroy, 31, John H. Con-

roy, 32, John H. Conroy, 33, John H. Con-

roy, 34, John H. Conroy, 35, John H. Con-

roy, 36, John H. Conroy, 37, John H. Con-

roy, 38, John H. Conroy, 39, John H. Con-

roy, 40, John H. Conroy, 41, John H. Con-

roy, 42, John H. Conroy, 43, John H. Con-

roy, 44, John H. Conroy, 45, John H. Con-

roy, 46, John H. Conroy, 47, John H. Con-

roy, 48, John H. Conroy, 49, John H. Con-

roy, 50, John H. Conroy, 51, John H. Con-

roy, 52, John H. Conroy, 53, John H. Con-

roy, 54, John H. Conroy, 55, John H. Con-

roy, 56, John H. Conroy, 57, John H. Con-

roy, 58, John H. Conroy, 59, John H. Con-

roy, 60, John H. Conroy, 61, John H. Con-

roy, 62, John H. Conroy, 63, John H. Con-

roy, 64, John H. Conroy, 65, John H. Con-

roy, 66, John H. Conroy, 67, John H. Con-

roy, 68, John H. Conroy, 69, John H. Con-

POSTPONED Public Sale.

BY virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland,

the undersigned Clerk of said Court, in public sale, the House of John Donahoe, in Havre de Grace, on MONDAY the 10th day of February next, the following valuable property, situate and being in

Cecil county, upon and near the waters of the North East river, and the Chesapeake Bay, being a part of the real estate of the late Col. William Ramsey, and sold for the payment of his debts:

All that valuable

PROPERTY,

TOGETHER WITH

78 1/2 acres of Cleared Land therein adjoining, known by the name of the "Green Bank" lying upon the North East river, about one mile above its entrance into the Chesapeake Bay. The excellence and value of this fishery