TO THE DOG KILLER

My old and faithful dog.
Whose same and wide remown
Have hightened many a roque,
And would'st thou shoot him down?
Let Housety go free
Though mad, he would betware
Of such a thing as thee.

When but an idle boy,
Otton with him I reced;
In all their gushing joy,
Him, teo, ny sisters loved;
And him my benthers dear.
The fand spass would give,
Leafert who sent thee here?
Get let that old dog live.

My heart strings round thee cling. Close as thy hide, old friend! Thy honors i will sing. Tily lift and fame defend. Old dog! the Mayor brave! And, loafer, levre the spot, While I've a hand to save, Thy gun shall herm him not.
