

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.
Question.—Would it not be proper

Here it may be proper to remark that both of these secondary Trustees, were not worth one tenth of the property of the Bank which had come to their hands, and where it still remains.

...the case the commission now constituted a tooth and nail. The special acts of emergency do not apply to the case of the

...we see a futile attempt to rise upon strength of others, to secure a firm

...—Sir: I have resigned my the Senate of the U. States. responsibility. JOHN BLANCHARD

We have letters from Buffalo, dated the 23d of January, from which it appears

Elkton, Md.

List of Letters

sent to the Post Office at Post Department, Jan. 1st, 1838.

—John Brooks, Eliza Brown, Lydia Brumfield, George J. Burston, Putnam, Susan Bond, Patrick Byrne, Julia Ann Brown, James C. Butler, Cunningham.

—Alison Candler, Jeremiah Coleman, Ann Chamberlain, Jacob Cramer, C., Will Clogg, William Crampton, S. Patterson, Sarah Culloway, Samuel Cook, Levi Clarkson, Miss Knapp.

—Betty Dunn, Mary Draper, M. De-

—Lynde Elliott, Joseph Easton, Jr., and Emerson, William Everett.
—Prudence Foster, William Faxon.
—James Gaven, George Gill, Hugh Kin, Wm. R. Rayford, T. Samuel Hill, William M. Gove, William Geo. G., and M. Ginn.
—Richard Rogers, P. Hammond, W. Hovell, T. John Hart, John Hutchins,

—George M. Johnson, Hugh Jones,
in Jay.
—George H. Kennedy, 2.
—James Ledlin, Alexander Lane,
Leith Lee, William Lyaskey, Michael tan.
—James McMiller, Terrie McCate,
Mc McGrawman, Jonathan McVey,
Moravian, Esq. James Miller.

Wm. Marsh, James McCabe,
and David Smith
-David A. Neil, William Neil
-Capt. Thomas Patton, Joseph P.
James Penwell
-Mrs. Reynolds, 2
-Horatio N. Shawcross, 3, Joseph James Silver, James H. Springer,
-J. S. Thompson, Alonzo H. Smith, Joshua
-William Smith and Sons, 5th and

—Mrs. Ann Tompkins, James Tracy,
Amos Thornton, Samuel T. Johnson, Martin Todd.
—John Wentz, Capt. John Wilson,
Williams, Ed. of Civil War, David
Vail, 2, Eli White, Messrs. Bates &
Laker, John Walker, John Webb.
Persons calling for letters on the above

12—1w
 rt Deposit Hotel for Rent.
 12—1w
 will rent that well known Hotel,—in upper end of the village of Port 12—1w in the occupancy of Robert

The house is large and comfortable—with all the necessary outbuildings. The location of this Hotel is altogether as desirable as any in the village. It is centrally placed between the bridge over the Suquia—commonly the travelling from every direction; and is in the immediate vicinity of the Granite Quarries, and all other places of interest in the neighbourhood.

I will also rent two or three DWELLINGS, situated in the vicinity of the said hotel, at a low rent to suitable tenants.

the 25th of March next. For further particulars apply to GEO. KIDD,
c. 30—6w near Port Deposit.

FOR SALE,

A valuable Farm, called Capson's nature, and Addition to Capson's are better known by the name of 430 Acres.

proportion of the land is cleared under good fence, a part of which has lime, and is set in Clover; there be 2000 Cords of wood cut off. Improvements consist of a Frame Dwelling House, Frame cellared Barn, and some small out Buildings in tolerable repair. The shore is cellared for winter fish, and is also one of the above property is not sold before of February, 1838, it will be for Persons wishing to purchase will

JOHN OWENS.
JAMES HASSON.

all persons having claims against the deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same to the undersigned Clerk, duly sworn, on or before the 10th day of June, they may otherwise, by law, be excluded from the benefit of said estate. Potomac Insular Land Co. Attorneys.

all estates are requested to make inventories thereof and to file the same with the undersigned. Given under my hand this 16th day of December, 1897.

JENNETT A. GREGG,
FERMIAN B. HAYNES, Clerks.

vice—for an arduous and laborious exercise of no important profession! You must have been more fortunate, gentlemen, than I have been, if you have acquired the treasures of Ceres, or the name of Fortunatus. I have served as long an apprenticeship as any of you; but I can lay claim to no such acquisition. We are rich only in our Leptotes. We never are—least always to be blessed! We are the martyrs to that expanded system of indifference credit, which has overgrown our country—but no other class of Society has suffered as much by it as we have. Our Cornucopia are full; but not with gold and silver, nor even with bank notes, but with our subscribers' bills.

THE CECIL GAZETTE.

ELKTON, Md.
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1888.

It will be seen by our advertising columns, those copies of nature, the Siamensis Taxis, will pay Elton a visit on Monday next.

With a trifling exception the following may be taken as a pretty correct statement of the business which has been and is now being done by our legislators at Annapolis.

The house met. Present the same members as yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. The bill entitled an act to divide the State into Congressional Districts.

The question of the contested election from Mississippi, which has occupied much time and great much discussion, has at length been disposed of and the House has determined that neither Moore, Cushman and Glendon, nor Moore, Freeman and Ward, are entitled to seats in Congress, and that a new election must be held for representatives from that State.

The story we published a week or two since about the Empire of Russia, in coming six or seven hundred years, Polish founder to be torn from their families and home, and married by force to many Russian women, is pronounced in the Paris papers as fully true beginning to end.

MR. WEBSTER AND THE GLOBE.

The Globe has got Mr. Webster in a class class. We copy an article from another column that paper which looks very much like coming him to his question of veracity between it and the Senator. How the gentleman from Massachusetts is to extricate himself from the position in which he is now placed remains to be seen. It will be a difficult undertaking, but if he does not, the public will be forced to regard him as "completely flustered."

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC SENATOR.

We learn from the Nashville Union that Mr. James Trotter has been elected to the Senate of the United States by the Mississippi Legislature to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the Hon. John McKim. Mr. Trotter is a democrat of the old school, opposed to the old Bank of the United States, or to any similar institution, and is in favor of the cotton-plant, or a special deposit of the public funds with the State Bank. The votes were as follows—Trotter 65, Bradley 32, Hudson 25.

The Union adds: "We congratulate our friends on this triumph of democratic principles over the forces of the money power." It shows that Missisippis is true to the democratic faith, and that she will be found among the foremost in sustaining the principles of the present administration.

The Delaware Gazette, in pointing out remarks relative to a new mail route between that place and Centerville, questions whether it will be likely to afford the citizens of the Eastern Shore any material advantage over the present plan. We have no doubt of it, and a little reflection must point these advantages out to the editor of that paper. We thought we had demonstrated to the satisfaction of every one, in our previous article on this subject, the utility of the change, but lest we did not we will add a word or two more. According to the present arrangement letters mailed at this place for Centerville in on twelve hours at the farthest. But again, to bring the matter nearer home—Our paper is printed on Friday night—on Saturday night—starts for Wilmington on Saturday—detained there on Sunday—and some time during the day of Monday reaches Centerville and Warwick in this country! Nearly three days in going twenty miles! Let the new route be established and how few of the hours would be sufficient to transmit letters to those places. There are only two cases of many which could be brought forward in support of the new route. They may appear to our friend, as a little bit in their character, but we assure him we are actuated by no such motives. We believe that the people of the Eastern Shore suffer great inconvenience from the existing state of things, and if we appear a little modest in advocating such a reform, it is only for their benefit, not ours. The fact is they have great need of consolation, and we earnestly trust that Mr. Kendall will listen to their petitions with favor.

We learn from the Baltimore Sun that it has passed the House of Representatives, and that after the first day of June next, any person who shall have, or may hereafter be appointed, a Lottery Commission, Commission.

of innocent debtors, wood cedar, or to any other of that character, or who shall have been so heretofore in the case of others, from the term of five years, shall not be eligible to hold office again for the space of one year. This bill was passed by a vote of 35 yeas to 20 nays. The Sun states that it is a business was felt in Baltimore on the receipt of the above news by certain office holders. No doubt of it. Men who have held lucrative offices until they have grown fat upon the spoils, and who imagine from their long continuance therein that they were made exclusively for the term, the hand which applied that their services are no longer wanted. They may, however, the hand writing is on the wall, and are long the reality will be presented to the official of vision in characters too indelible to be overlooked. We hope with the Sun that the bill will pass the Senate.

The bill for establishing the Sub-Treasury System by law, so recommended by Mr. Val Baren, is drawn with admirable ability, and presents that great and important measure before Congress in a tangible shape. The Boston Post truly remarks that scarcely a day has passed since the stoppage of specie payments by the banks in May last, that new evidence has not been furnished in favor of the expediency of the absolute necessity of the adoption of this measure, and we hope the Democrats of our Nation—with one voice and one heart—will insist in urging it forward to final success. Every means should be used to impress upon the minds of the members of Congress the deep interest with their conduct in regard to their anxious constituents, upon this point, and their impatient desire to see the country relieved from its present difficulties, relative to the public money, and quiet and confidence restored by a perfect separation between Bank and State.

OMER, the celebrated Indian Chief, died at Fort Moultrie, near Charleston, on the 30th ult.

We have nothing important from the frontier. Appearances warrant the belief that the troubles at that quarter will soon terminate.

MARRIED.

By the Rev. R. Lloyd Giddings, on the 25th ult. Mr. R. VAN DYKE, to Miss Mary Bennett, of North East.

Obituary.

Dead at the palace and the cottage gate. (Greek.)

Kind of a pulmonary disease, in the city of Baltimore, on Friday the 2nd inst. Mr. CALLED WARD, in the 65th year of age. He was a native of New York, and resided in the city of Baltimore for many years. He was a member of the old school, opposed to the old Bank of the United States, or to any similar institution, and is in favor of the cotton-plant, or a special deposit of the public funds with the State Bank. The votes were as follows—Trotter 65, Bradley 32, Hudson 25.

Deeply, indeed, do we deplore his decease; but "All that's bright must fade," "The brightest star the firmament," and he has been saved from many a heart-ache, much perplexity, vexation and disappointment. Had he lived he might have seen friendship untroubled by hypocrisy marked in virtue, his purest acts untroubled, and his noblest efforts unimpeded by a conscious world. So we will not see his virtues clouded with injustice in life's dispensations—Farewell, noble-hearted youth! Our loss is your gain. The author of this humble tribute to your memory will cherish the recollection of your virtues, and your memory will be to him as a talisman of other times, pleasant and profitable to the soul.

Siamese Twins.

For one day only
The united brothers, CHANG-ENG, very respectfully acquaint the Ladies and Gentlemen of Elkton, that they will be in that place on Monday next, 12th of February, and will receive visitors at the house of William Kitchin.

A Valuable Farm FOR SALE.

THIS subscriber offers for sale a tract of land containing about 240 acres, lying in Cecil County, nearly opposite the town of Havre de Grace on the Susquehanna River, and about one mile from the Wilmington and Susquehanna Rail Road Depot. This land is well watered, having a natural stream running through one part, and a null-race directly down the whole extent of the farm beside a main spring of pure water in different fields.

On the premises are a tenant's HOUSE and BARN, both built within the last few years. The soil is of an excellent quality, and by the use of Lime, (which will soon be abundantly furnished by the Canal to Havre de Grace), can be made very productive.

Living adjoining the above described property.
Feb. 10—4f

In Chancery, 1st February, 1888.

ORDERED, that the sale of the Real Estate of Amy McVey, made and reported by the Trustee, Hiram McCallough, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause be shown to the contrary, on or before the 5th day of April next. Provided a copy of this order be published in some newspaper once in each of three successive weeks before the 5th day of March next.

The report states the amount of sales to be $1251.60. True Copy.
Reg. Cur. Can.

Feb. 10—3w

Henry R. Reynolds, Esq. of Giles S. Langdon, Esq. of Levi Ford.

THIS subscriber having purchased the real estate of the above named defendant, at a sale thereof, in virtue of an execution issued upon the foregoing Judgment, made on the 10th day of June last, by the Court of Cecil County, (Shire), hereby gives notice, that he intends to pay to the Judges of Cecil County Court, at its next session, to be held in Elkton on the 1st Monday of April next, for a confirmation of said sale, when and where the said defendant, or his creditors, or any other person or persons, claiming an interest in the matter, will have an opportunity of stating their objections, if any they have, why the sale should not be confirmed, and for that purpose are hereby warned to appear.

The property purchased by the subscriber consists of a tract or part of a tract of land, called "White Ford," lying and being in Cecil County, adjoining the lands of William Reynolds, and others, containing 22 acres more or less, and was struck off for the sum of $40.

EDWARD L. POARD.
Feb. 10—3w

100 Acres of Woodland FOR SALE.

THIS subscriber will sell one hundred acres of first rate woodland, almost the entire growth which is white oak and hickory. It lies immediately on the Wilmington and Susquehanna Rail Road, about 2 miles from the town of Elkton and 4 from New Ark.

Adjoining the woodland is a Farm containing about 65 acres of cleared land, and 20 of wood, all of which will be sold with the woodland if desired. The cleared land has had from 75 to 80 bushels of lime to the acre. For terms apply to the subscriber near Elkton, Md.

WILLIAM H. GILPIN.
Feb. 2—3w

Notice.

THE Commissioners of Cecil County will meet at their Office, in the Court House on MONDAY, 12th February ult. By order.
JAMES H. JAMAR, Clk.
February 2—2w

Baltimore & Philadelphia.

Land for Sale.

THIS subscriber will sell private estate a tract of land lying in the neighborhood of the Blue Bell Tavern, and Brick Meeting House, in Cecil County, Maryland, which contains 112 ACRES OF LAND, of which about 33 acres are covered with good timber, and 180 acres are arable land. The improvements are a comfortable two story Dwelling House, partly of stone and partly frame, and a Stone Spring House over a never failing spring of pure water. The soil is tolerably productive and of an improvable quality, and there has been 1700 bushels of Lime put on it within a very few years past.

The fencing is in good condition—There is on the premises a large, stable orchard bearing fine fruit. Lime can be had within 12 miles of this property. An indisputable title can be made, and the terms will be reasonable.

Apply to John C. Groome in Elkton, or to the subscriber near the Brick Meeting House.
JOHN HADDOCK.
Jan. 27—3w

Dr. D. B. Trimble, HAVING located himself at the residence of Dr. G. S. Townsend, near the Rising Run, offers his professional services to the citizens of Cecil County.

Jan. 13, 1888.

Fountain Inn.

FOR RENT, the Fountain Inn in Elkton, Md., in present occupancy of Mr. William Kincaid. Application for the 25th of March next.

Apply to MARY A. RICHARDSON, Elkton, Md. Jan. 13, 1888.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of a writ of vendition exponas, issued out of Cecil County Court, at the suit of Lambert G. Hyland, & others, and to be sold for cash to satisfy the above judgment.

Jan. 27 W. M. McCULLOUGH, Sheriff.

Attention.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to the different Companies composing the 4th Regiment, that they are required to assemble, each in their respective bounds, on or before the 15th day of February next, for the purpose of electing officers to fill said bounds as do exist in their several companies, and immediately thereafter to report their proceedings to Col. Wm. Mackey, in order that commissions may be forthwith obtained.

For the 1st Battalion.
Company No. 1—Formerly commanded by Capt. Smith.
No. 2—Capt. Nowland.
No. 3—Capt. Morgan.
No. 4—Capt. Raylins.
No. 5—Capt. Henderson.

For the 2d Battalion.
Company No. 1—Captain Garrett.
No. 2—Capt. Tyson.
No. 3—Under command of Capt. Howard.
No. 4—Formerly under command of Capt. Jones.

In case the above requisition is not promptly complied with, and report made by the 25th day of February next, officers will be appointed and commissioned without further notice.

R. CLOUD, Lt. Col. 4th Reg.
Elkton, Jan. 20, 1888.

Millwrighting.

THIS subscriber having located himself at the village of the Rising Sun, Cecil County, Md., will be happy to serve the public in his line of business, and from long experience is desirous to be to give general satisfaction.

SAMUEL M. MCCUTCHEEN.
Jan. 13—4f

STORE GOODS FOR SALE.

THIS subscriber having been engaged for upwards of thirty years in selling goods at his present stand in Chestertown, is desirous to quit the mercantile business, and offers for sale his entire stock of goods, which consist of a very general assortment. The goods have been well selected and the greater part of them have been purchased within the last twelve months. Only a small proportion of the merchandise would be required to stock a liberal retail will be given on the balance upon the payments being well secured. I would prefer to sell the goods for good cash, and the store room and fixtures would be required to be removed to the purchaser.

Wanted,

A Boy about sixteen years of age, to learn the milling business, none need apply only those that can come well recommended for having good moral character.
G. FURNELL.
P. S. A quantity of good Timothy hay for sale.
Elkton, Jan. 12—4w

Notice.

THE public are hereby forewarned from purchasing notes held by Wm. H. Kase against the undersigned, as for reasons which may hereafter be made known, they do not believe them legal.
DAVID TAYLOR.
JOSEPH FISHER.
THOMAS MCCONAUGHY.
Dec. 20—1w

For Sale,

THIS farm at present occupied by the subscriber, 31 miles distant from Elkton, and 2 from the Rail Road, The Road to Turkey Point passes through it. It contains 340 ACRES, about 100 cleared, including a small marsh, fifty Acres under good fence, in small fields. The remaining part is covered with wood of various kinds. From 2500 cords of first rate fire wood may be taken off it. There are many white oaks suitable for saw logs or ship builders, and considerable young thriving chestnuts.

Pine Creek, which is navigable for vessels of 5 to 6 feet draft, runs on one side and the lead branches run through the extent of it. There are several landings convenient, where a team may deliver from the farthest part, 4 to 5 loads a day, and a considerable part only 3 or 400 yards to haul. Persons desirous of purchasing will call and see for themselves. As usual, to speak of the Buildings there are as many and as good as necessary for a farmer.

THOMAS MOORE.
Elk Neck, Cecil Co. Md.
Jan. 6, 1888—4f

Great Bargains!! SELLING OFF AT COST FOR CASH!!

As the Subscriber intends to decline business, he will sell off at cost of all his stock, for cash, his most splendid assortment of Goods, consisting of—

Shirts, Cambrics, Cassimeres, Silk Vests, Fur, Kid, and Leather Goods, Hats, Caps, Boots, Hooters, Shoes, &c.

ALSO A LARGE STOCK OF Groceries.

He particularly invites the attention of the Ladies to his stock of Silks, French and English Merinos, Bonnettes, Bonnettes, fine Cloths, English Prints, of the most beautiful patterns, Merinos, Cassimeres and Cottons, Shirts, Gloves, Ribbons, &c.

He has also on hand a large supply of China, Liverpool and Queensware, Hardware, Coal-oil, Lard-oil, and other goods.

He will venture to say his assortment is larger and more complete than any in Elkton or in this county, and he will sell for cash as cheap as any stock procured at wholesale prices in either of the cities of New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore.

He invites the attention of his customers particularly.

THE public will please call and judge for themselves.

Grateful for the liberal patronage he has received from the public generally, he has the honor to subscribe himself the public's humble servant.

S. HYLAND, of J. N. B. it is presumed that no one will expect to make any of the above described goods at first cost and expect credit.

Nov. 16—4f

For Sale,

THAT Valuable Farm lying in Cecil County, Maryland, adjoining lands of Elk Forge, within two miles of the town of Elkton.

The above property contains about 975 ACRES, of which there is about 30 or 40 acres of good Bottom Meadow, and about 40 acres of Woodland.

The Farm is well adapted for raising grain, or grazing, or both if necessary, and has upon it a good Orchard of a choice collection of Fruit.

The buildings are a comfortable Dwelling House, a good Barn, and all necessary outbuildings; a pump of excellent water at the door, and a good spring and spring house convenient for the buildings. There is a good spring in almost every field.

Farmers

Look to your interests.

ALL persons interested in the most important of all the implements of husbandry, the Centrifugal Separator for separating milk, plaster, manure and compost, and for saving wheat and other grain, are requested to call on the subscribers, who have purchased the patent right of the patent, for the counties of New Castle and Kent, in the State of Delaware, and Cecil County, in the State of Maryland, and are now engaged in making the same.

GARRETT COX & Co., Middletown, Del.
Jan. 20, 1888—4f

For Rent,

THIS House and Lot near Elk Landing, at present occupied by Mr. William McCullough.

Also, the House and Lot at Elkton, now occupied by Mr. William Jones. Possession will be given on the 25th of March.

For terms apply to HENRY HOLLINGSWORTH.
Jan. 27—3w

Advertisement.

THE Subscriber has located himself on Bellemia Manor, opposite Chesapeake City, and is respectfully solicited the support of his former customers in this section of the country, assuring them that his work will be executed in his former style.

PATRICIUS FINEGAN.
Jan. 27—3w

Notice.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the subscriber intends to apply to Cecil County Court, at the next April Term, for a commission to mark and bound his land called "Hogpen," "Small Hope," and "Hogpen Reservoir," or by whatever other name the same may be known.

JOSEPH GEORGE.
Jan. 20—3w

List of Letters

Remaining in the Post Office at Post Department, Jan. 1st, 1888.

B—John Brooks, Eliza Brown, Lydia Ann Brumfield, George J. Branton, Patrick Burns, Susan Bond, Patrick Byrne, Miss Julia Ann Brown, James C. Byrne, John Cummings.

C—Allison Candler, Jeremiah Collier, William Chamberlain, Jacob Coffey, 2, Carroll Coffey, William Crampton, 3, Patrick C. Cyle, Sarah Conway, Samuel Clayton, Levi Clarkson, Miss Rachel Cord.

D—Hetty Dunn, Mary Draper, M. D. Dray, Squire Drummer.

E—Lynde Elliott, Joseph Elliott, Jr., Edward Emmons, William Evans.

F—Prudence Foster, William Parve.

G—James Given, George Gull, Hugh Glackin, Wm. S. Gaylord, 2, Samuel Gillingham, William M. Gort, William Godly, Thomas M. Ginn.

H—Richard Holden, P. Hammond, William Havlin, 2, John Hart, John Hudgin, Samuel Hawkins.

J—George M. Johnson, Hugh Jones, Joshua Jay.

K—George H. Kennedy, 2.

L—James Loflin, Alexander Lane, Elizabeth Lee, William Lynskey, Michael Langran.

M—James McMullen, Terna McCabe, Joseph McGranegan, Jonathan McVey, David Merriam, Esq., James Miller, Capt. Wm. Marshall, James McCabe, Edward McCormick.

N—David O. Neill, William Neil.

P—Capt. Thomas Patten, Joseph Porter, James Pennevel.

R—Mrs. Reynolds, 2.
S—Horatio N. Sherwood, S. Joseph Sall, James Silvers, James H. Springer, Fanny Simpson, Alanson B. Smith, Josiah Sattou, William Southey, Sarah Shannan.

T—Mrs. Ann Tompkins, James Tracy, Robinson Thornton, Samuel Tuckstone, Miss Martha Toth.
W—John Wenta, Capt. John Wilson, Eliza Williams, Ed. of Cecil Wigg, David C. Wills, A. Eli White, Messrs. Stiles & Whitaker, John Walker, John Webb.

Persons calling for letters on the above list will please say they are advertised.
ALLEN ANDERSON, P. M.
Jan. 15—4w

Port Deposit Hotel for Rent.

I will rent that well known Hotel, in the upper end of the village of Port Deposit—now in the occupancy of Robert Cather. The house is large and comfortable—with all the necessary outbuildings.

The location of this Hotel is altogether as eligible as any in said village. It is immediately below the bridge over the Susquehanna—commands the traveling depot almost every direction; and is in the immediate vicinity of the Granite Quarries, as well as of the Canal on the east side of the village. It is a desirable location for the business from the canal and the quarries.

I will also rent two or three DWELLINGS, situated in the village of Port Deposit, at a low rate, for suitable tenancy.

Persons of all the above hotels, please apply on the 25th of March next. For further particulars apply to

GEO. KEND, near Port Deposit.
Feb. 20—4w

THE CHILL GAZETTE,

And Farmers' and Mechanics' Advertiser.

"THE BURNING OF GOVERNMENT, LIKE THE DUTY OF HEAVEN, SHOULD BEHELD ALIKE UPON THE RICH AND THE POOR."—Andrew Jackson.

VOL. I.

ELKTON, MD. SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 17, 1838.

NO. 40.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING

BY H. BONEE.

Farmers

Look to your interests.

ALL persons interested in the most important of all the implements of husbandry, the Centrifugal Disintegrator for spreading lime, plaster, manure, and compost, and for saving wheat and other small grain, are requested to call on the subscribers, who have purchased the patent right of the patentee, for the counties of New Castle and Kent, in the State of Delaware, and Cecil county, in the State of Maryland, and are now engaged in making the same.

GARRET COX & Co.
Middletown, Del.

Jan. 20, 1838—4

For Rent,

THE House and Lot near Elk Landing, at present occupied by Mr. William McCulloch.

Also, the House and Lot at Elkton, now occupied by Mr. William Jones. Possession will be given on the 25th of March.

For terms apply to

JERRY HOLLINGSWORTH.

Jan. 27—3w

Advertisement.

THE Subscriber has located himself on Robinson Manor, opposite Chesapeake City, and convenient to Mr. Joseph B. Smith's store. He respectfully solicits the support of his former customers in this section of the country, assuring them that his work will be executed in his former style.

PATRICK FINGGAN.

Jan. 27—3w

Notice.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the subscriber intends to apply to the Court at the last April Term, for a commission to mark and bound his land called "Hopewell," "Small Hope," and "Hopewell Runaway," or by whatever other name or names the same may be known.

Jan. 27

J. GEORGE.

Great Bargains!!

SELLING OFF AT COST

FOR CASH!!

As the Subscriber intends to decline business in Elkton on the 25th of March, and leave for the "far west," he will sell off at cost, for cash his most splendid assortment of Goods, consisting of—

Cloths, Cassimeres, Cassimerettes, Silk Vests, Furriers, Muslin, Linen, Caps, Boots, Bottles, Shoes, &c.

ALSO A LARGE STOCK OF Groceries.

He particularly invites the attention of the Ladies to his new assortment of Silks, French and English Muslins, Bombazines, Bombazines, fine Chintzes, English Prints, of the most beautiful patterns, Merinoes, and Cotton Shirts, Gowns, Ribbons, &c.

He has also on hand a large supply of China, Liverpool and Queensware, Hardware, Colors, wares, Hollow-ware, and Provisions.

He will venture to say his assortment is larger and more complete than any in Elkton or in this county, and he will sell them for cash as cheap as they can be procured at wholesale prices in either of the cities of New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore.

He invites the attention of his customers particularly.

The public will please call and judge for themselves.

Grateful for the liberal patronage he has received from the public generally, he has the honor to subscribe himself the public's humble servant.

S. H. LAND, of Mr. J. P.

to purchase any of the above described goods at first cost and expect credit.

Nov. 16—4

Port Deposit Hotel for Rent.

It will rent that well known Hotel—in the upper end of the village of Port Deposit—now in the occupancy of Robert Calver. The house is large and commodious—with all the necessary out buildings.

The location of this Hotel is altogether as eligible as any in the village. It is immediately below the bridge over the Susquehanna—commands the travelling from almost every direction, and is in the immediate vicinity of the Granite Quarries, as well as the Canal on the east side of the river—and may command a portion of the business from the canal now constructing on the west side of the Susquehanna.

It will rent two or three DWELLINGS, situated in the vicinity of the hotel, on a low rent to suitable tenants.

Possession of all the above houses given on the 25th of March next. For further particulars apply to

GEO. KIDD,

Port Deposit.

Dec. 30—6w

POETRY.

THE MARRIED MAN'S FATE.

Happy and free are a married man's reveries,
Cherished, merrily, passes his life;
He knows not the bachelor's sorrows, desires,
Careless and free, his children and wife;
From lassitude free, sweet home to flee to,
A pet on his knee too, his kindness to share;
A friend on every side, the smile of his dear,
O this boy, this is the married man's fate.

With kind on an angel, sees things never range

II.

Boy promising his comfort around,

Dismissing rejection with smiles of affection,

Boys' loving, smiling, when fortune has drawn;

Old one railing drab tale, never stating;

Little ones prating—all strange to care—

Some romping, some purring, some paunching,

Some cooing,

Economy doling the married man's fate.

Thus in each daily, one's married life;

Not so the bachelor lonely dreads'd—

No gentle one near him, no house to endear him.

In sorrow to cheer him, no friend if no guest;

No children to clasp up—would fill all his time up;

And time too much time to get him despair;

Cross his back with a netting, his cleaning him,

his

Bills pouring—midsomere, denouncing him fare.

He has no one to put on a shawl or neck handkerchief;

Shirts mangled to rags—drawers striped as at knave;

With overalls, his underwear, undone is he;

No maid with a shawl, or a lace or a ribbon;

No daughter, with pleasure, new gowns to put;

But old maids and cousins, kind would rush in to Relieve him and soothe his bachelor's rash.

He calls children sons, Sir—(the son and the grapes, Sir);

And thus would be well when his looks are blue;

He shows a row of scars out, and tell him he's worn out;

And amidst deriding cry, "No, my love, no!"

Old age comes with sorrow, with anxiety, with care;

No hope in to-morrow—no sympathy

spurn;

And when to turn to her, he looks to the skies

up;

None close his eyes—no one—and who cares?

From the New Orleans Commercial Herald.

FAREWELL!

Farewell!—the world is broken,

And my back is on the shore;

Farewell! the spell is broken,

And I shall never see thee more.

Farewell! to every love,

And farewell to every home,

For the last fond word is spoken.

And the land of promise dwelt!

Farewell! the flowers are scattered,

And their petals are down;

Farewell! the lamp is shattered,

And the light has gone;

Farewell! to every love,

And farewell to every home,

For the last fond word is spoken.

And the land of promise dwelt!

Farewell! the clouds are scattered,

And the golden light is down;

Farewell! the chain is broken,

And the fetter is shattered;

Farewell! to every love,

And farewell to every home,

For the last fond word is spoken.

And the land of promise dwelt!

MISCELLANEOUS.

From the Southern Bee.

THE MAN OF LEISURE AND THE PALE BOY.

"You'll please not to forget to ask the place for me, Sir," said a pale blue-eyed boy, as he brushed the coat of the man of leisure, at the door of the hotel.

"Certainly, Sir," said Mr. Inkle, "I shall be glad to say in a day or two."

"Did you say for the place for me, Sir, yes?" said the pale boy, on the following day, with a quivering lip, as he performed the same office.

"No," was the answer, "I was busy, but I will do it."

"God bless my poor mother," murmured

the boy, and gazing intently on the coattailer, he said in his hand.

"The boy went home, and he ran to the luggage children with the last he had earned by brushing the gentlemen's coats at the hotel. They shouted with joy, and his mother held out her emaciated hand for a portion, while a sickly smile flitted across her face.

"Mother, dear," said the boy, Mr. Inkle thinks he can get the place, and I shall be three months a day—only think, mother, three months—and it won't take three months to run home and see you."

His mother's face lit up, and she said,

"I am so glad, my dear, that I shall be able to see you so soon."

And she kissed him, and he went home with a bounding heart, and a bounding step.

"The Man of Leisure on a death bed!"

Mr. Inkle was taken ill. He had said of ten that he thought religion might be a good thing, and he meant to look into it.

An anxious friend brought a clergyman to him. He spoke tenderly, but seriously to the sufferer, of eternal truth.

"Call to-morrow," said the Man of Leisure, "and we will talk about these matters."

That night the Man of Leisure died.

From Hood's Comic Annual.

RAIL ROAD TRAVELLING.

I vow I'll go, and it shall be so, and I've said it. Mister Snip. This very day, come what come may, I'll have my railway trip.

There's Mrs. King, I'll have to bring,

and think herself so knowing, I'm tired of waiting your debating, and it's time that we were going. Well, Duck, though

I never did travel in foreign parts. Law,

Mac how I shall squeal when the engine starts. For shame, child, as to fear, it's nothing but a notion, I declare I always feel the better for a little motion. Fray

Mister, do you call this a first-class carriage because it goes double fast?—No, no, 'tain't its because we put it behind to be slow'd up last. See, they're pulling us along with a rope yet old upon my word. Yes, you can't expect the things to go on their own accord—But just look round at Hampstead and Highgate, while they slacken their pace—and see they look on the locomotive. What's that? A thing they've a motive for hooking on at this place. Here's Chalk-farm, where some run down a hill, and some run up a score!—And there's the famous tunnel! It looks like a hole of a bore.

"Oh dear! Oh dear! how dreadful dark!"

"I think I'm going to die. And I'm so fond of my prayer! but here's the light of the sky. See what a hole in my parade, burnt by a red-hot spark!—I

only wish I knew by what was it—

Sure 'nough 'nough I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it!

Oh dear! Oh dear! how dreadful dark!"

"I think I'm going to die. And I'm so

fond of my prayer! but here's the light of the sky. See what a hole in my

parade, burnt by a red-hot spark!—I

only wish I knew by what was it—

Sure 'nough 'nough I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it!

Oh dear! Oh dear! how dreadful dark!"

"I think I'm going to die. And I'm so

fond of my prayer! but here's the light of the sky. See what a hole in my

parade, burnt by a red-hot spark!—I

only wish I knew by what was it—

Sure 'nough 'nough I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it!

Oh dear! Oh dear! how dreadful dark!"

"I think I'm going to die. And I'm so

fond of my prayer! but here's the light of the sky. See what a hole in my

parade, burnt by a red-hot spark!—I

only wish I knew by what was it—

Sure 'nough 'nough I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it!

Oh dear! Oh dear! how dreadful dark!"

"I think I'm going to die. And I'm so

fond of my prayer! but here's the light of the sky. See what a hole in my

parade, burnt by a red-hot spark!—I

only wish I knew by what was it—

Sure 'nough 'nough I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it! I'll be sorry to lose it!

Oh dear! Oh dear! how dreadful dark!"

"I think I'm going to die. And I'm so

fond of my prayer! but here's the light of the sky. See what a hole in my

parade, burnt by a red-hot spark!—I

only wish I knew by what was it—

CONVERSATION ON CONSCIENCE.

A few friends accidentally meeting one day, were led in conversation to conclude that some men have no conscience.

"There is neighbour T," said one of them, "who has borrowed from me no less than three umbrellas, and seems to make no conscience of bringing them back."

"Ah," said a student, "I have had several such neighbors, until my library almost consists of old volumes."

"The case is bad," said a mechanic,

"but not so bad as mine, for I have been working for the rich Mr. F. for the last twelve months, and he has so little conscience that he always puts me off

when I ask for my wages."

"Well, well," said a physician, "I have always found that men had less conscience in paying the doctor's bill than any thing else."

"Excuse me," says a country clergyman,

"if I doubt your conclusion. I labor hard, and live poor, and although I am always descending on the pleasure of a good conscience, that is a conscience which

A PORTAL

☛ The Legislature of Virginia has instituted a regulatory program into the workings of the banks, and this, too, through a large majority of the members declare themselves friendly to those institutions and that they believe them to be in a sound condition. This is right. It is doing justice both to the public and the banks. If, on investigation, the banks are found to have conducted their business properly and to be in a sound condition, the public mind will be quieted, the public confidence established, and by consequence, the banks strengthened. The same line of investigations by the members of the Legislature, produce very little more than expense—nothing—and problems.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Republican.

The quarrel that is soon to be ted party.

After Mr. CLAY had concluded his remarks, Mr. WALSH rose, and after saying, in most brief phrases, that the

The subject was then taken to the city food of his dog, on going to his one way, very poorly landed he was found to a chair, and got under table. However, neither he nor any one else was injured. The animal was not taken to the city.

From the Washington Globe.

...to me that our relations will be an
...to me that our relations will be an
...to me that our relations will be an

