

And Farmers' and Mechanics' Advertiser.

"THE BLESSING OF GOVERNMENT, LIKE THE DAWN OF HEAVEN, SHOULD BECKON AND LEAD US TO THE RIGHT AND THE GOOD."—Andrew Jackson.

VOL. 2.

ELKTON, MD., SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 4, 1830.

NO. 51.

THE DRYING GIRL TO HER LOVER.

For well beloved, the evening hours are stealing
Silly around me, and the low sweet light
Of water mooning ring
Falls on my soul, in gentle tone revealing
Visions of future hours, when I shall be
Thine, but in memory.

Will not sometimes wander forth alone
Beside this tranquil lake, and fondly dwell
On days that were so well
And as the breeze bears forth each plaintive
Tone,
Will not my spirit seem to hover near?
Thy cherished voice to hear?

Yet must I leave thee, tho' thy sadden'd brow
Grows paler than the moon, and each fond smile
Fades from thy lip as I
Still would be won from thy fond smiling back
Unto its outward track.

New London Academy.

THIS Institution is located in a district of country, noted for uncommon salubrity, and a population distinguished for intelligence and industry, in a village having easy communication with our larger cities, and yet retired as to be shut out from temptation to vice and extravagance.

The distinguished healthfulness of the location, combined with the advantages of this institution, a situation peculiarly desirable for boys during the summer season.

Boarding, with washing and linen, may be obtained for $1.75 per week, in the most respectable families, where students will receive all the care and comfort to which they were accustomed at home, and be saved from that ruin of morals to which the young at such public schools, are so generally exposed.

The course of instruction includes the usual branches of an English, Classical and Mathematical Education. The price of tuition, for the term of five or six months, is $10.00. For full particulars, apply to the Trustees.

The Summer Session will commence on the 20th day of April.

WILLIAM S. GRAHAM,
Referee: Rev. Robert P. Du Bois, Genl. Secy. John W. Cunningham, of New London; James Kelton, Esq. West Gate; Rev. John N. H. Green, Brandywine; Rev. John M. Dickey, Oxford; Rev. Wm. W. Gilbert, Wilmington; Rev. J. Holmes Agnew, Philadelphia.

New London Cross Roads, Chester Co., Pa.
April 1st, 1830.

New London Academy.

THE Summer Session of this Academy will commence on Monday, 20th day of April. The Trustees, Mr. William S. Graham, a graduate of New York College, and for two years a tutor in that institution. A large and respectable company assembled at the examination of the Students at the close of the Winter Session, were witnesses of his fidelity as an instructor and of the success attending his method of instruction, as manifested in the readiness with which replies were given to the many and diversified questions that were proposed to the various classes.

This Academy possesses advantages of some which are not easily obtained elsewhere. Amongst these are the quietness of its situation, the general intelligence and morality of the neighbourhood, its healthfulness at all seasons, and especially the cheerfulness with which a solid American Education may be obtained—the terms of tuition being low, and the price of boarding in the most respectable families being such that the whole expense of the Student is little more than half of that which is common in the boarding schools near our large cities. The Trustees have lately procured a charter from the Legislature, which it is hoped will enable them to add to the advantages which they already offer, by availing themselves of the liberality of the State, as held out in a late Act offering aid on certain conditions to incorporated Academies.

ROBERT P. DU BOIS,
President of the Trustees.
New London Cross Roads, Pa.
April 6, 1830.

THE SPLENDID FULL BRED HORSE Aimwell.

WILL stand for mares the present season at the Summer stable, and at Cecil Cross Roads, commencing at home, the first week in April, and the second at Cecil Cross Roads, and an alternately during the season, which will end about the 30th of June. Every other Monday and Saturday, he will pass through Georgetown Cross Roads and the Head of Sasfrase.

Aimwell.

Is a beautiful dark bay, with black legs, mane and tail, of fine form. He was sired by John Richards, one of the celebrated Alcockmire maker, and his pedigree may be found in the American Turf Register, the volume and number not now recollected.

TERMS.
Twelve dollars the season, payable by the first of September, and the balance at Cecil Cross Roads, or before the 30th of February, 1840; all mares mated with him before the fact can be ascertained, will be considered as bred.

RAYMOND BIDDLE.
April 6—5w.

CASH paid the highest market price for a pair of Mares, owned by Mr. J. H. Fox and owned by—
JOSEPH COX & SONS,
No. 6 South Eddy St. Baltimore.
March 22—25 50

POETRY.

THE DYING GIRL TO HER LOVER.

For well beloved, the evening hours are stealing
Silly around me, and the low sweet light
Of water mooning ring
Falls on my soul, in gentle tone revealing
Visions of future hours, when I shall be
Thine, but in memory.

Will not sometimes wander forth alone
Beside this tranquil lake, and fondly dwell
On days that were so well
And as the breeze bears forth each plaintive
Tone,
Will not my spirit seem to hover near?
Thy cherished voice to hear?

Yet must I leave thee, tho' thy sadden'd brow
Grows paler than the moon, and each fond smile
Fades from thy lip as I
Still would be won from thy fond smiling back
Unto its outward track.

New London Academy.

THIS Institution is located in a district of country, noted for uncommon salubrity, and a population distinguished for intelligence and industry, in a village having easy communication with our larger cities, and yet retired as to be shut out from temptation to vice and extravagance.

The distinguished healthfulness of the location, combined with the advantages of this institution, a situation peculiarly desirable for boys during the summer season.

Boarding, with washing and linen, may be obtained for $1.75 per week, in the most respectable families, where students will receive all the care and comfort to which they were accustomed at home, and be saved from that ruin of morals to which the young at such public schools, are so generally exposed.

The course of instruction includes the usual branches of an English, Classical and Mathematical Education. The price of tuition, for the term of five or six months, is $10.00. For full particulars, apply to the Trustees.

The Summer Session will commence on the 20th day of April.

WILLIAM S. GRAHAM,
Referee: Rev. Robert P. Du Bois, Genl. Secy. John W. Cunningham, of New London; James Kelton, Esq. West Gate; Rev. John N. H. Green, Brandywine; Rev. John M. Dickey, Oxford; Rev. Wm. W. Gilbert, Wilmington; Rev. J. Holmes Agnew, Philadelphia.

New London Cross Roads, Chester Co., Pa.
April 1st, 1830.

New London Academy.

THE Summer Session of this Academy will commence on Monday, 20th day of April. The Trustees, Mr. William S. Graham, a graduate of New York College, and for two years a tutor in that institution. A large and respectable company assembled at the examination of the Students at the close of the Winter Session, were witnesses of his fidelity as an instructor and of the success attending his method of instruction, as manifested in the readiness with which replies were given to the many and diversified questions that were proposed to the various classes.

This Academy possesses advantages of some which are not easily obtained elsewhere. Amongst these are the quietness of its situation, the general intelligence and morality of the neighbourhood, its healthfulness at all seasons, and especially the cheerfulness with which a solid American Education may be obtained—the terms of tuition being low, and the price of boarding in the most respectable families being such that the whole expense of the Student is little more than half of that which is common in the boarding schools near our large cities. The Trustees have lately procured a charter from the Legislature, which it is hoped will enable them to add to the advantages which they already offer, by availing themselves of the liberality of the State, as held out in a late Act offering aid on certain conditions to incorporated Academies.

ROBERT P. DU BOIS,
President of the Trustees.
New London Cross Roads, Pa.
April 6, 1830.

THE SPLENDID FULL BRED HORSE Aimwell.

WILL stand for mares the present season at the Summer stable, and at Cecil Cross Roads, commencing at home, the first week in April, and the second at Cecil Cross Roads, and an alternately during the season, which will end about the 30th of June. Every other Monday and Saturday, he will pass through Georgetown Cross Roads and the Head of Sasfrase.

Aimwell.

Is a beautiful dark bay, with black legs, mane and tail, of fine form. He was sired by John Richards, one of the celebrated Alcockmire maker, and his pedigree may be found in the American Turf Register, the volume and number not now recollected.

TERMS.
Twelve dollars the season, payable by the first of September, and the balance at Cecil Cross Roads, or before the 30th of February, 1840; all mares mated with him before the fact can be ascertained, will be considered as bred.

RAYMOND BIDDLE.
April 6—5w.

CASH paid the highest market price for a pair of Mares, owned by Mr. J. H. Fox and owned by—
JOSEPH COX & SONS,
No. 6 South Eddy St. Baltimore.
March 22—25 50

POETRY.

THE DYING GIRL TO HER LOVER.

For well beloved, the evening hours are stealing
Silly around me, and the low sweet light
Of water mooning ring
Falls on my soul, in gentle tone revealing
Visions of future hours, when I shall be
Thine, but in memory.

Will not sometimes wander forth alone
Beside this tranquil lake, and fondly dwell
On days that were so well
And as the breeze bears forth each plaintive
Tone,
Will not my spirit seem to hover near?
Thy cherished voice to hear?

Yet must I leave thee, tho' thy sadden'd brow
Grows paler than the moon, and each fond smile
Fades from thy lip as I
Still would be won from thy fond smiling back
Unto its outward track.

New London Academy.

THIS Institution is located in a district of country, noted for uncommon salubrity, and a population distinguished for intelligence and industry, in a village having easy communication with our larger cities, and yet retired as to be shut out from temptation to vice and extravagance.

The distinguished healthfulness of the location, combined with the advantages of this institution, a situation peculiarly desirable for boys during the summer season.

Boarding, with washing and linen, may be obtained for $1.75 per week, in the most respectable families, where students will receive all the care and comfort to which they were accustomed at home, and be saved from that ruin of morals to which the young at such public schools, are so generally exposed.

The course of instruction includes the usual branches of an English, Classical and Mathematical Education. The price of tuition, for the term of five or six months, is $10.00. For full particulars, apply to the Trustees.

The Summer Session will commence on the 20th day of April.

WILLIAM S. GRAHAM,
Referee: Rev. Robert P. Du Bois, Genl. Secy. John W. Cunningham, of New London; James Kelton, Esq. West Gate; Rev. John N. H. Green, Brandywine; Rev. John M. Dickey, Oxford; Rev. Wm. W. Gilbert, Wilmington; Rev. J. Holmes Agnew, Philadelphia.

New London Cross Roads, Chester Co., Pa.
April 1st, 1830.

New London Academy.

THE Summer Session of this Academy will commence on Monday, 20th day of April. The Trustees, Mr. William S. Graham, a graduate of New York College, and for two years a tutor in that institution. A large and respectable company assembled at the examination of the Students at the close of the Winter Session, were witnesses of his fidelity as an instructor and of the success attending his method of instruction, as manifested in the readiness with which replies were given to the many and diversified questions that were proposed to the various classes.

This Academy possesses advantages of some which are not easily obtained elsewhere. Amongst these are the quietness of its situation, the general intelligence and morality of the neighbourhood, its healthfulness at all seasons, and especially the cheerfulness with which a solid American Education may be obtained—the terms of tuition being low, and the price of boarding in the most respectable families being such that the whole expense of the Student is little more than half of that which is common in the boarding schools near our large cities. The Trustees have lately procured a charter from the Legislature, which it is hoped will enable them to add to the advantages which they already offer, by availing themselves of the liberality of the State, as held out in a late Act offering aid on certain conditions to incorporated Academies.

ROBERT P. DU BOIS,
President of the Trustees.
New London Cross Roads, Pa.
April 6, 1830.

THE SPLENDID FULL BRED HORSE Aimwell.

WILL stand for mares the present season at the Summer stable, and at Cecil Cross Roads, commencing at home, the first week in April, and the second at Cecil Cross Roads, and an alternately during the season, which will end about the 30th of June. Every other Monday and Saturday, he will pass through Georgetown Cross Roads and the Head of Sasfrase.

Aimwell.

Is a beautiful dark bay, with black legs, mane and tail, of fine form. He was sired by John Richards, one of the celebrated Alcockmire maker, and his pedigree may be found in the American Turf Register, the volume and number not now recollected.

TERMS.
Twelve dollars the season, payable by the first of September, and the balance at Cecil Cross Roads, or before the 30th of February, 1840; all mares mated with him before the fact can be ascertained, will be considered as bred.

RAYMOND BIDDLE.
April 6—5w.

CASH paid the highest market price for a pair of Mares, owned by Mr. J. H. Fox and owned by—
JOSEPH COX & SONS,
No. 6 South Eddy St. Baltimore.
March 22—25 50

POETRY.

THE DYING GIRL TO HER LOVER.

For well beloved, the evening hours are stealing
Silly around me, and the low sweet light
Of water mooning ring
Falls on my soul, in gentle tone revealing
Visions of future hours, when I shall be
Thine, but in memory.

Will not sometimes wander forth alone
Beside this tranquil lake, and fondly dwell
On days that were so well
And as the breeze bears forth each plaintive
Tone,
Will not my spirit seem to hover near?
Thy cherished voice to hear?

Yet must I leave thee, tho' thy sadden'd brow
Grows paler than the moon, and each fond smile
Fades from thy lip as I
Still would be won from thy fond smiling back
Unto its outward track.

New London Academy.

THIS Institution is located in a district of country, noted for uncommon salubrity, and a population distinguished for intelligence and industry, in a village having easy communication with our larger cities, and yet retired as to be shut out from temptation to vice and extravagance.

The distinguished healthfulness of the location, combined with the advantages of this institution, a situation peculiarly desirable for boys during the summer season.

Boarding, with washing and linen, may be obtained for $1.75 per week, in the most respectable families, where students will receive all the care and comfort to which they were accustomed at home, and be saved from that ruin of morals to which the young at such public schools, are so generally exposed.

The course of instruction includes the usual branches of an English, Classical and Mathematical Education. The price of tuition, for the term of five or six months, is $10.00. For full particulars, apply to the Trustees.

The Summer Session will commence on the 20th day of April.

WILLIAM S. GRAHAM,
Referee: Rev. Robert P. Du Bois, Genl. Secy. John W. Cunningham, of New London; James Kelton, Esq. West Gate; Rev. John N. H. Green, Brandywine; Rev. John M. Dickey, Oxford; Rev. Wm. W. Gilbert, Wilmington; Rev. J. Holmes Agnew, Philadelphia.

New London Cross Roads, Chester Co., Pa.
April 1st, 1830.

New London Academy.

THE Summer Session of this Academy will commence on Monday, 20th day of April. The Trustees, Mr. William S. Graham, a graduate of New York College, and for two years a tutor in that institution. A large and respectable company assembled at the examination of the Students at the close of the Winter Session, were witnesses of his fidelity as an instructor and of the success attending his method of instruction, as manifested in the readiness with which replies were given to the many and diversified questions that were proposed to the various classes.

This Academy possesses advantages of some which are not easily obtained elsewhere. Amongst these are the quietness of its situation, the general intelligence and morality of the neighbourhood, its healthfulness at all seasons, and especially the cheerfulness with which a solid American Education may be obtained—the terms of tuition being low, and the price of boarding in the most respectable families being such that the whole expense of the Student is little more than half of that which is common in the boarding schools near our large cities. The Trustees have lately procured a charter from the Legislature, which it is hoped will enable them to add to the advantages which they already offer, by availing themselves of the liberality of the State, as held out in a late Act offering aid on certain conditions to incorporated Academies.

ROBERT P. DU BOIS,
President of the Trustees.
New London Cross Roads, Pa.
April 6, 1830.

THE SPLENDID FULL BRED HORSE Aimwell.

WILL stand for mares the present season at the Summer stable, and at Cecil Cross Roads, commencing at home, the first week in April, and the second at Cecil Cross Roads, and an alternately during the season, which will end about the 30th of June. Every other Monday and Saturday, he will pass through Georgetown Cross Roads and the Head of Sasfrase.

Aimwell.

Is a beautiful dark bay, with black legs, mane and tail, of fine form. He was sired by John Richards, one of the celebrated Alcockmire maker, and his pedigree may be found in the American Turf Register, the volume and number not now recollected.

TERMS.
Twelve dollars the season, payable by the first of September, and the balance at Cecil Cross Roads, or before the 30th of February, 1840; all mares mated with him before the fact can be ascertained, will be considered as bred.

RAYMOND BIDDLE.
April 6—5w.

CASH paid the highest market price for a pair of Mares, owned by Mr. J. H. Fox and owned by—
JOSEPH COX & SONS,
No. 6 South Eddy St. Baltimore.
March 22—25 50

POETRY.

THE DYING GIRL TO HER LOVER.

For well beloved, the evening hours are stealing
Silly around me, and the low sweet light
Of water mooning ring
Falls on my soul, in gentle tone revealing
Visions of future hours, when I shall be
Thine, but in memory.

Will not sometimes wander forth alone
Beside this tranquil lake, and fondly dwell
On days that were so well
And as the breeze bears forth each plaintive
Tone,
Will not my spirit seem to hover near?
Thy cherished voice to hear?

Yet must I leave thee, tho' thy sadden'd brow
Grows paler than the moon, and each fond smile
Fades from thy lip as I
Still would be won from thy fond smiling back
Unto its outward track.

New London Academy.

THIS Institution is located in a district of country, noted for uncommon salubrity, and a population distinguished for intelligence and industry, in a village having easy communication with our larger cities, and yet retired as to be shut out from temptation to vice and extravagance.

The distinguished healthfulness of the location, combined with the advantages of this institution, a situation peculiarly desirable for boys during the summer season.

Boarding, with washing and linen, may be obtained for $1.75 per week, in the most respectable families, where students will receive all the care and comfort to which they were accustomed at home, and be saved from that ruin of morals to which the young at such public schools, are so generally exposed.

The course of instruction includes the usual branches of an English, Classical and Mathematical Education. The price of tuition, for the term of five or six months, is $10.00. For full particulars, apply to the Trustees.

The Summer Session will commence on the 20th day of April.

WILLIAM S. GRAHAM,
Referee: Rev. Robert P. Du Bois, Genl. Secy. John W. Cunningham, of New London; James Kelton, Esq. West Gate; Rev. John N. H. Green, Brandywine; Rev. John M. Dickey, Oxford; Rev. Wm. W. Gilbert, Wilmington; Rev. J. Holmes Agnew, Philadelphia.

New London Cross Roads, Chester Co., Pa.
April 1st, 1830.

New London Academy.

THE Summer Session of this Academy will commence on Monday, 20th day of April. The Trustees, Mr. William S. Graham, a graduate of New York College, and for two years a tutor in that institution. A large and respectable company assembled at the examination of the Students at the close of the Winter Session, were witnesses of his fidelity as an instructor and of the success attending his method of instruction, as manifested in the readiness with which replies were given to the many and diversified questions that were proposed to the various classes.

This Academy possesses advantages of some which are not easily obtained elsewhere. Amongst these are the quietness of its situation, the general intelligence and morality of the neighbourhood, its healthfulness at all seasons, and especially the cheerfulness with which a solid American Education may be obtained—the terms of tuition being low, and the price of boarding in the most respectable families being such that the whole expense of the Student is little more than half of that which is common in the boarding schools near our large cities. The Trustees have lately procured a charter from the Legislature, which it is hoped will enable them to add to the advantages which they already offer, by availing themselves of the liberality of the State, as held out in a late Act offering aid on certain conditions to incorporated Academies.

ROBERT P. DU BOIS,
President of the Trustees.
New London Cross Roads, Pa.
April 6, 1830.

THE SPLENDID FULL BRED HORSE Aimwell.

WILL stand for mares the present season at the Summer stable, and at Cecil Cross Roads, commencing at home, the first week in April, and the second at Cecil Cross Roads, and an alternately during the season, which will end about the 30th of June. Every other Monday and Saturday, he will pass through Georgetown Cross Roads and the Head of Sasfrase.

Aimwell.

Is a beautiful dark bay, with black legs, mane and tail, of fine form. He was sired by John Richards, one of the celebrated Alcockmire maker, and his pedigree may be found in the American Turf Register, the volume and number not now recollected.

TERMS.
Twelve dollars the season, payable by the first of September, and the balance at Cecil Cross Roads, or before the 30th of February, 1840; all mares mated with him before the fact can be ascertained, will be considered as bred.

RAYMOND BIDDLE.
April 6—5w.

CASH paid the highest market price for a pair of Mares, owned by Mr. J. H. Fox and owned by—
JOSEPH COX & SONS,
No. 6 South Eddy St. Baltimore.
March 22—25 50

POETRY.

THE DYING GIRL TO HER LOVER.

For well beloved, the evening hours are stealing
Silly around me, and the low sweet light
Of water mooning ring
Falls on my soul, in gentle tone revealing
Visions of future hours, when I shall be
Thine, but in memory.

Will not sometimes wander forth alone
Beside this tranquil lake, and fondly dwell
On days that were so well
And as the breeze bears forth each plaintive
Tone,
Will not my spirit seem to hover near?
Thy cherished voice to hear?

Yet must I leave thee, tho' thy sadden'd brow
Grows paler than the moon, and each fond smile
Fades from thy lip as I
Still would be won from thy fond smiling back
Unto its outward track.

New London Academy.

THIS Institution is located in a district of country, noted for uncommon salubrity, and a population distinguished for intelligence and industry, in a village having easy communication with our larger cities, and yet retired as to be shut out from temptation to vice and extravagance.

The distinguished healthfulness of the location, combined with the advantages of this institution, a situation peculiarly desirable for boys during the summer season.

Boarding, with washing and linen, may be obtained for $1.75 per week, in the most respectable families, where students will receive all the care and comfort to which they were accustomed at home, and be saved from that ruin of morals to which the young at such public schools, are so generally exposed.

The course of instruction includes the usual branches of an English, Classical and Mathematical Education. The price of tuition, for the term of five or six months, is $10.00. For full particulars, apply to the Trustees.

The Summer Session will commence on the 20th day of April.

WILLIAM S. GRAHAM,
Referee: Rev. Robert P. Du Bois, Genl. Secy. John W. Cunningham, of New London; James Kelton, Esq. West Gate; Rev. John N. H. Green, Brandywine; Rev. John M. Dickey, Oxford; Rev. Wm. W. Gilbert, Wilmington; Rev. J. Holmes Agnew, Philadelphia.

New London Cross Roads, Chester Co., Pa.
April 1st, 1830.

New London Academy.

THE Summer Session of this Academy will commence on Monday, 20th day of April. The Trustees, Mr. William S. Graham, a graduate of New York College, and for two years a tutor in that institution. A large and respectable company assembled at the examination of the Students at the close of the Winter Session, were witnesses of his fidelity as an instructor and of the success attending his method of instruction, as manifested in the readiness with which replies were given to the many and diversified questions that were proposed to the various classes.

This Academy possesses advantages of some which are not easily obtained elsewhere. Amongst these are the quietness of its situation, the general intelligence and morality of the neighbourhood, its healthfulness at all seasons, and especially the cheerfulness with which a solid American Education may be obtained—the terms of tuition being low, and the price of boarding in the most respectable families being such that the whole expense of the Student is little more than half of that which is common in the boarding schools near our large cities. The Trustees have lately procured a charter from the Legislature, which it is hoped will enable them to add to the advantages which they already offer, by availing themselves of the liberality of the State, as held out in a late Act offering aid on certain conditions to incorporated Academies.

ROBERT P. DU BOIS,
President of the Trustees.
New London Cross Roads, Pa.
April 6, 1830.

THE SPLENDID FULL BRED HORSE Aimwell.

WILL stand for mares the present season at the Summer stable, and at Cecil Cross Roads, commencing at home, the first week in April, and the second at Cecil Cross Roads, and an alternately during the season, which will end about the 30th of June. Every other Monday and Saturday, he will pass through Georgetown Cross Roads and the Head of Sasfrase.

Aimwell.

Is a beautiful dark bay, with black legs, mane and tail, of fine form. He was sired by John Richards, one of the celebrated Alcockmire maker, and his pedigree may be found in the American Turf Register, the volume and number not now recollected.

TERMS.
Twelve dollars the season, payable by the first of September, and the balance at Cecil Cross Roads, or before the 30th of February, 1840; all mares mated with him before the fact can be ascertained, will be considered as bred.

RAYMOND BIDDLE.
April 6—5w.

CASH paid the highest market price for a pair of Mares, owned by Mr. J. H. Fox and owned by—
JOSEPH COX & SONS,
No. 6 South Eddy St. Baltimore.
March 22—25 50

POETRY.

THE DYING GIRL TO HER LOVER.

For well beloved, the evening hours are stealing
Silly around me, and the low sweet light
Of water mooning ring
Falls on my soul, in gentle tone revealing
Visions of future hours, when I shall be
Thine, but in memory.

Will not sometimes wander forth alone
Beside this tranquil lake, and fondly dwell
On days that were so well
And as the breeze bears forth each plaintive
Tone,
Will not my spirit seem to hover near?
Thy cherished voice to hear?

Yet must I leave thee, tho' thy sadden'd brow
Grows paler than the moon, and each fond smile
Fades from thy lip as I
Still would be won from thy fond smiling back
Unto its outward track.

New London Academy.

THIS Institution is located in a district of country, noted for uncommon salubrity, and a population distinguished for intelligence and industry, in a village having easy communication with our larger cities, and yet retired as to be shut out from temptation to vice and extravagance.

The distinguished healthfulness of the location, combined with the advantages of this institution, a situation peculiarly desirable for boys during the summer season.

Boarding, with washing and linen, may be obtained for $1.75 per week, in the most respectable families, where students will receive all the care and comfort to which they were accustomed at home, and be saved from that ruin of morals to which the young at such public schools, are so generally exposed.

The course of instruction includes the usual branches of an English, Classical and Mathematical Education. The price of tuition, for the term of five or six months, is $10.00. For full particulars, apply to the Trustees.

The Summer Session will commence on the 20th day of April.

WILLIAM S. GRAHAM,
Referee: Rev. Robert P. Du Bois, Genl. Secy. John W. Cunningham, of New London; James Kelton, Esq. West Gate; Rev. John N. H. Green, Brandywine; Rev. John M. Dickey, Oxford; Rev. Wm. W. Gilbert, Wilmington; Rev. J. Holmes Agnew, Philadelphia.

New London Cross Roads, Chester Co., Pa.
April 1st, 1830.

New London Academy.

THE Summer Session of this Academy will commence on Monday, 20th day of April. The Trustees, Mr. William S. Graham, a graduate of New York College, and for two years a tutor in that institution. A large and respectable company assembled at the examination of the Students at the close of the Winter Session, were witnesses of his fidelity as an instructor and of the success attending his method of instruction, as manifested in the readiness with which replies were given to the many and diversified questions that were proposed to the various classes.

This Academy possesses advantages of some which are not easily obtained elsewhere. Amongst these are the quietness of its situation, the general intelligence and morality of the neighbourhood, its healthfulness at all seasons, and especially the cheerfulness with which a solid American Education may be obtained—the terms of tuition being low, and the price of boarding in the most respectable families being such that the whole expense of the Student is little more than half of that which is common in the boarding schools near our large cities. The Trustees have lately procured a charter from the Legislature, which it is hoped will enable them to add to the advantages which they already offer, by availing themselves of the liberality of the State, as held out in a late Act offering aid on certain conditions to incorporated Academies.

ROBERT P. DU BOIS,
President of the Trustees.
New London Cross Roads, Pa.
April 6, 1830.

THE SPLENDID FULL BRED HORSE Aimwell.

WILL stand for mares the present season at the Summer stable, and at Cecil Cross Roads, commencing at home, the first week in April, and the second at Cecil Cross Roads, and an alternately during the season, which will end about the 30th of June. Every other Monday and Saturday, he will pass through Georgetown Cross Roads and the Head of Sasfrase.

Aimwell.

Is a beautiful dark bay, with black legs, mane and tail, of fine form. He was sired by John Richards, one of the celebrated Alcockmire maker, and his pedigree may be found in the American Turf Register, the volume and number not now recollected.

TERMS.
Twelve dollars the season, payable by the first of September, and the balance at Cecil Cross Roads, or before the 30th of February, 1840; all mares mated with him before the fact can be ascertained, will be considered as bred.

RAYMOND BIDDLE.
April 6—5w.

CASH paid the highest market price for a pair of Mares, owned by Mr. J. H. Fox and owned by—
JOSEPH COX & SONS,
No. 6 South Eddy St. Baltimore.
March 22—25 50

SINGULAR WAY OF AVOIDING A DUEL.

M. B. a young fashionable of considerable wealth, being one evening, where a party ran high, one of his comrades, the Count de—, who had not a high reputation for paying his debts, became reduced to his last Napoleon, and borrowed of M. B. two thousand francs, promising to return them next morning by his groom. Some time, however, passed without the money or the groom appearing. M. B. called upon his debtor, who always happened to be out, and was for some time last night, of whom last Sunday night, M. B. suddenly met the Count at the Bureau des Suppléments, in the lobby of the Theatre de Renaissance, just as the latter had laid down a five franc piece to obtain a better place in the theatre, which M. B. instantly snatched up, saying, "Now, as your account stands one thousand nine hundred and ninety-five francs, instead of two thousand. Next day M. B. was roused by the Count entering with two friends, and apparently for a duel, which M. B. observed would not be fair, as they were not upon equal terms, for if he fell he should lose his life and his money too. Upon this one of the Count's friends fetched the money instantaneously, which M. B. paid, and he now considered the Count a man of honor, and there was nothing to fight about; and as the Count of Cession had decided that seconds must be dealt with as principals, he could not think of bringing two of his friends into such a predicament. Accordingly the affair ended with a déjeuné.

MARY REYNOLDS' REVENGE. The Maine Legislature has granted a divorce to Col. Ebenezer Cobbhead and his wife Mary Reynolds. The Countess is on the wrong side of fifty, while the bride has just passed the right side of twenty. For this divorce, the only course The Revere could take was to sue for a divorce. Fair Mary said—the case was proved, and thus she saved her Name. Can any blame be attached to her? Who gave her the count a job? When all the corn is shelled and gone, Say—who would have the corn?

A. T. FORWOOD, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

HAS moved his office to the brick building, opposite the Fountain Inn, where he will be found by those who wish his professional services.
mar 23—3w

